

Bulletin Prints Samuel's Article on College Unions

The latest issue of the Bulletin of the Association of College Unions has an article in it by John Samuel's, last year's Memorial Student Center council president, telling "the union's place in mid-20th century education."

The bulletin calls the article "one of the most noteworthy statements about the union idea made by a student in recent times."

The article was first given as a talk to the Texas-Oklahoma regional conference last December. Samuels was chairman of that conference.

In the article, Samuels says that the first basic purpose of a student union, like the MSC, is to offer a "living laboratory on the campus or instilling concepts of citizenship and service into the student body."

He stated that the second purpose is to give students the physical facilities and organized program within which they "may cultivate a sophisticated manner of spending leisure hours."

Samuels pointed out the main idea should be that "all your programs and committee work will be put into the perspective of service to fellow students and human beings."

William the Conqueror, king of England, died in Rouen, capital of Normandy in 1087.

Aggie Fencers To Duel John Tarleton

A&M's fencing team, last year's Southwest conference titlists, goes after its fifth straight win, over John Tarleton here Friday.

It will be the first match of the year for the Cadets. Art Garner, a senior from Amarillo, is this year's captain.

"The boys work hard all the time," said Lt. Col. Frank S. Vaden, fencing coach, "and they're really interested in fencing. That's why they won last year, and why they're contenders again this year."

The team has had two invitations to meets so far this year. One to Chihuahua, Mexico, last month was not accepted because the team had not had a chance to work out. An invitation to the University of Arizona meet at Tucson during the Thanksgiving holidays is being considered.

The regular conference season won't start until the spring. Matches scheduled so far include the University of Houston, Rice, Texas, Texas Tech and the Bucaneer Fencing club of Galveston.

A&M is now seventh in the nation in pass defense after being first last week. The Aggies have given up 27 completions of 60 passes for 280 yards, an average of 46.7 yards per game.

So far, about 15,000 tickets have been sold for Saturday's game. There still are plenty of good seats left, said Barlow (Bones) Irvin, administrative assistant.
