Some Ringing Phrases

Every year at this time, newspapers have editorials lecturing people on going to vote. They say it is every citizen's duty to vote and democracy hinges on the vote of the people, and they use a lot of other ringing phrases.

And most of this rolls off the backs of the citizens, because 60 to 70 per cent of the people don't vote.

But the stark facts are that the editorials' ringing phrases are true; they voice the principles that have made America a country so complacent in its democracy that its people can think they don't have to do anything themselves to assure that democracy.

So once again, we join the other newspapers of America in asking the citizens to vote—it is the citizen's duty, and democracy hinges on the vote of the people.

The citizen who is proud of his country and its form of government needs no more encouragement than this simple statement—the election will be next Tuesday.

Unbeaten Ag Soccer Team Plays Airmen

The unbeaten Aggie soccer team plays host to Bryan air force base at 2 p.m. Sunday in the 10th meeting of the two teams.

The Aggies haven't lost a game to the air force team since the series began in 1951. Last year Bryan air force base managed to tie the Cadets in one game.

Jacintho Lacouone, freshman from Brazil, leads A&M's scoring attack with three goals. Victor Arteona, Robert Ildarraz, and Jose Merion have each scored one goal.

Last week's practice game with Allen academy was called off because of rain. It will be played at a later date.

A&M journeys to Dallas Nov. 7 for its next game, against a strong Chance-Vought aircraft team.

Sunday's game will be played on the soccer field west of Law hall.

Dr. Reid Speaker At Biology Seminar

Dr. George K. Reid, professor in the department of wildlife management, spoke Tuesday night on "Fresh-water Habitats of Florida" in the first of a series of biology seminars sponsored by the departments of biology, oceanography and wildlife management.

The group of faculty members and students met at 7:30 in the home of Dr. Sidney O. Brown of the biology department at 700 E. Gilchrist in College Station.

The seminars will be held about once a month in the home of a faculty member. While primarily for faculty members and graduate students, undergraduates or others interested may attend, Dr. Reid said.

Marine Enlist Here Next Week

Capt. Charles Fimian, US Marine corps procurement officer will be on the campus Nov. 4, to discuss opportunities for receiving a commission in the Marine Corps reserve and to enroll students in these programs.

The officer candidate course is open to qualified college seniors and graduates. An applicant is commissioned a second lieutenant in the reserve after he has received his degree and satisfactorily completed a ten-week training period.

Harriers To Meet Arkansas Saturday

Coach Ray Putnam's A&M cross-country team duels Arkansas here Saturday afternoon ahead of the Southwest conference football game.

The Aggie-Porker cross-country race will be run over the 2.6-mile course just west of Kyle field stadium across the railroad tracks.

A&M stands 3-2 this fall, the latest match being a 20-25 loss to Texas at Austin. The Aggies now have split with Texas, having won an earlier match here Oct. 1. The Aggie harriers also own wins over Texas Tech and Oklahoma, while losing to Oklahoma A&M and Texas.

Aggie runners will be Verlon Westmoreland, Bill Cocks, Bob Boles, Ed Blake, Bob Hooper, F. R. Rul and Carl Wilmsen.

New Fall Fashion Announced by Campus Leader

Adam Apple, prominent senior, stuck his neck out yesterday about student fashions for the coming year. "Charcoal and pink are the colors; no shoulders, two vents and heavy brogans will be the clothes of distinction. Button down shirts and heavy knit ties will grace male necks on campuses from coast to coast. No jewelry, no chains, just a simple watch that rings a bell at 10, 2 & 4. Then, you'll be sure to know when it's Dr. Pepper time."

Follow the fashion cues set by campus leaders...
