The Tigers have an 0-2 record in district play, compared to Cypress-Fairbanks' 1-1 mark. If past scores indicate anything the teams should be about evenly matched. Both teams lost to Sealy, the district leader, by eight points.

Cats Beat Tomball
The Bobcats were downed 14-6 by Sealy in their opening district game, while Consolidated lost to Katy, 20-7. Last week the Tigers lost their homecoming game to Sealy 28-20, and Cypress-Fairbanks blanked Tomball 25-0, to move into a third place tie in the district race.

On offense, CHS probably will start Jerry Oden and Dick Hickman at ends, Henry Phillips and co-captain George Litton at tackles, Manuel Garcia and Jack McNeely at guards, and Norman Floeck at center.

The backfield will be J. B. Carroll at quarterback, Tommy Barker and co-captain Travis Englebrecht at halfbacks, and Bobby Joe Wade at fullback.

The Tigers have averaged 204 yards per game rushing this season to their opponents 227.7. In the passing department, CHS has gained 37.6 yards a game as compared to their rivals' 50.7 yards. The Tigers and their opponents have the same punting average of 31.8 yards per game.

Wade, thanks to last week's performance, leads CHS ball-carriers with 478 yards gained in 71 carries, an average of 7 yards per carry. Englebrecht has picked up 448 yards, and Barker 351.

Carroll has connected on 21 of 45 passes for a completion percentage of 46.7. He has also handled all of the Tiger's punting chores.

Feldman Scores Three

Kittens Stop Rally, Best Navasota 20-18

Quarterback Edgar Feldman ran for three first half touchdowns to lead A&M Consolidated junior high to a 20-18 win over Navasota Junior high at Tiger field last night.

Feldman began his scoring spree by returning the opening kickoff 73 yards for a touchdown. Dee Smith added the extra point to put the Kittens out in front 7-0 with less than a minute gone in the first quarter.

Navasota took the kickoff following the touchdown and failed to move with the ball. They punted to the Kittens' 3 where Feldman fielded it, and ran it back 97 yards for his second touchdown of the game. Kenneth Crooner kicked the extra point, making the score 14-0.

Mid-way in the second quarter the Kittens scored their third touchdown. After taking the ball over on downs on their own 16, Bobby Ross picked up 45 yards on an end-around play, Kirby Jackson ran for 3, and a Feldman-to-Jackson pass picked up 9 more. Feldman climaxed the drive with a 32-yard scamper for a touchdown. Jimmy Walton's run was short for the extra point leaving the score 20-0.

With four seconds left in the first half Navasota scored its first touchdown. The try for extra point was no good and the teams left the field at half-time with the score 20-6 in favor of the Kittens.

Navasota turned the tables on the Kittens in the second half and ran the opening kickoff back 62 yards for a touchdown. The try for extra point was no good and the Kittens still led 20-12.

Late in the third period Navasota scored its last touchdown on a one-yard pass play. Navasota again missed its extra point try. The score remained 20-18.

In the fading minutes of the game Navasota drove down to the Kitten 2, but a fumble was recovered by Cooner and the Kittens kept the ball the rest of the game.

SPORTS SHORTS

Kyle field and Memorial Stadium share the football spotlight this week in the Southwest conference, with a stunning Arkansas team seeking to take another big stride toward the conference title and University of Texas trying a comeback after a jolting shakeup.

The Razorbacks, of course, meet a determined but manly Aggie crew Saturday night. Texas plays Southern Methodist in an afternoon game.

This week's predictions:
Arkansas 27, A&M 12.
SMU 28, Texas 7.

TCU 26, Baylor 21.
Rice 20, Vanderbilt 7.

Hogs, Ags Were Picked for Cellar

Actually, Arkansas and A&M have a lot in common, even though they are at different ends of the football ladder. Both Bowden Wyatt and Paul Bryant are SWC newcomers, Wyatt being in just his second year. Each coach starred at end for a Southeastern conference school in his playing days—Wyatt at Tennessee and Bryant at Alabama.

If the Aggies let down this week, Arkansas can just about win as it chooses. On the other hand, with their dads present on the sideline, as part of Dads day, the Aggies could explode and topple the Hogs off their tall limb. Arkansas seems about due for a tumble, and the Razorbacks may be looking ahead to the Rice game next week.

Both teams were picked to battle each other for the cellar, and both squads had man-power problems at the start of the season.

Everything considered, though, it looks like a decisive win for Arkansas, since the Razorbacks can afford a little letup. If the Aggies don't go all-out, again, the score will be lopsided.

How Will Steers Take It?

This could be the weekend of the Great Rebirth at Austin, or, and this seems more likely, it could be another dismal Saturday for Texas. The disciplinary action taken by Coach Ed Price appears to have come too late to produce immediate results. It should pay off before the end of the season, however, depending on how the Longhorns take it.

Vandy because of the Arkansas game next week. Even so, the Owls figure to win, since there aren't any serious injuries.

SMU has a fine team with a well-balanced offense and defense. The Ponies should win by at least two touchdowns, and if they get two ahead, Texas isn't likely to exactly play its heart out.

The TCU-Baylor contest is a toss-up, but the Bear defense looked too weak against the Ags. L. G. Dupre could turn the tide for Baylor, however.

Rice will be trying to keep its big guns under wraps against
