Bowling Team To Meet Trinity

The Aggie Bowling team will play host to San Antonio's Trinity university in the M.S.C. bowling alleys at 7 p.m. Saturday.

It will be a three-team meet. The three Aggie teams will be comprised of the top 15 bowlers in the A&M Bowling committee. Tommy Cox, chairman of the committee, called the Trinity A team "one of the best inter-collegiate bowling teams in the state."

Lufkin Retains First Place Spot

DALLAS, Nov. 10 — (AP) — Lopsided victories last week kept Lufkin, Breckenridge and Port Neches in the top three places in the Dallas News Class AAA schoolboy football poll.

Losses by Big Spring and Pharr — San Juan-Alamo, shuffled the remaining places. Big Spring skidded to seventh, and Pharr to 15th.

This week's top nine, in the opinion of Texas sportswriters—records in parenthesis: 1. Lufkin (7-0), 2. Breckenridge (6-0-1), 3. Port Neches (7-1), 4. Garland (7-0), 5. McAllen (7-1), 6. Palestine (6-1-1), 7. Big Spring (6-1-1), 8. Texarkana (5-2), 9. Vernon (5-2-1).

Fish Try Comeback Against Owlets

With supporters hoping they'll be out to make up for a sound thumping in their last game, the Aggie Fish meet the unbeaten Rice Owlets tonight at Kyle field.

Kickoff time is 7:30 and tickets are $1. Season student activities cards will be good for admission. After rolling to 31-6 and 7-0 wins over the University of Houston and TCU frosh, the Fish were swamped 38-14 by Baylor's Cubs four weeks ago. The Owlets, only unbeaten freshman team in the conference, downed SMU 6-0, Texas 27-6 and Wharton Junior college 39-19.

Head Coach Paul Bryant announced this probable starting lineup for the Fish: Ends, Dean Meeks, 185, and Bobby Marks, 185; tackles, Charles Krueger, 20, and A. L. Simmons, 206; guards, Jim Stanley, 190, and Howell Trimble, 182; center, Gerald Her, 23; quarterback, Jimmy Wright, 175; halfbacks, John Crow, 200, and Loyd Taylor, 165; fullback, Bill Gillespie, 189.
