

Five Troops Named For Girl Scouts

The organization of five new Girl Scout troops was announced at the November meeting of the College Station-Bryan area Executive Board of Girl Scouts this week at the Girl Scout Little house.

Two new troops have been organized at Ben Milam school and three new troops at St. Joseph's school. It is the first time that there have been Girl Scout troops in these schools.

Mrs. O. B. Donaho and Miss Charlotte Bailiff reported on the Cactus Region conference of Girl Scouts in Austin which they attended last week. The meeting was attended also by Mrs. Walter Heritage, president of the local Girl Scout Leader's club.

Mrs. Roy Layton, national president of Girl Scouts of the United States of America, told the delegates at the convention that "every meeting of Girl Scouts is not just a place to go, but a place where a girl finds herself, develops talents

Wesley Players To Be Installed

The Drama group of the A&M Wesley foundation will be installed as Wesley Players at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, the Rev. Robert C. Monk, foundation director, has announced.

The Wesley Players is a national religious drama organization of the Methodist Student movement. Students from the Wesley Players chapter in Denton will be at the installation service.

Officers of the chapter are Harold Fox, president, Harry Scott, vice-president, and Ernestine Smith, secretary.

The Rev. Monk asked that all chapter members and anyone interested to attend the service and the reception which will follow.

Petroleum Wives Will Meet Monday

The Petroleum Wives club will meet Monday at 8 p.m. in the Memorial Student Center and have as their guest R. L. Whiting, head of the petroleum engineering department.

Whiting will speak to the group on the various phases of petroleum engineering and answer questions.

Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Marlene Kubitz and Mrs. Patricia Cato.

A business meeting will follow Whiting's talk. The club will vote on a constitution and make plans for the Christmas party to be held Dec. 11.

EE Wives Invited To Hughes Home

Mrs. M. C. Hughes invites all wives of the Electrical Engineering students to attend a meeting at her home, 603 Hereford St., College Park, at 8 p.m. Monday.

Mrs. Hughes is the wife of M. C. Hughes, head of the EE department.

and lives a code of ethics. Girls are urged to learn facts and to use them."

The keynote of the conference was "Our American Heritage." It was brought out that America is the result of people from many countries coming together into a melting pot.

Local Girl Scouts will participate in the Christmas parade held by the Bryan merchants Dec. 3. Brownie scouts will sing carols before the parade.

Austin Mothers Sponsor Dance

The Austin A&M Mothers club is planning a pre-game dance the night before the A&M-Texas game at the City coliseum on Barton Springs road.

The dance will be held from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. and music will be furnished by Al Rubble's orchestra. There will also be a midnight yell practice.

Tickets are $1, stag or couple, and may be purchased from any A&M student from Austin. Tickets will also be sold in the Memorial Student Center next week.

The coliseum has been rented for the entire night and students may sleep there if they want to, the mothers club announced.

Bridge Club Meets Thursday Evening

The Aggie Wives Bridge club will meet Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the Memorial Student Center.

Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Diane Konig and Mrs. Pat Henderson for the regulars, Mrs. Mary Jo Boswell and Mrs. Marlys Johnson for the intermediates and Mrs. Jean Holcomb and Mrs. Joan Ticken for the beginners.

Prizes were awarded at the last meeting to regulars Mrs. Kathryn Harms, high, and Mrs. Jean Place, second highest. The intermediate prizes were won by Mrs. Dorris Harris, high, and Mrs. Joan Miller, second highest.

Business Wives To Meet Monday

The Business Wives club met in the YMCA Monday night and played bridge.

Refreshments of cookies and coke were served by hostesses Mrs. Catherine Neinst and Mrs. Joy Balderach.

The next meeting of the club will be Dec. 6, in the south solarium of the YMCA.
