Fish Ready for Match With Shorthorns Here

Out for at least a share of the Southwest conference freshman title, the Aggie Fish meet the fast-improving University of Texas Shorthorns at 2 p.m. Saturday at Kyle field.

A&M is now tied with Rice and Baylor for first place, each team having lost one game. The Owlets and Cubs play each other today.

The contest will be the eighth annual Shrine benefit game. Proceeds go to the crippled children's clinic in Austin. Tickets are $1.50 and can be bought at the A&M athletic ticket office, Madeley's drug store in College Station, Candy's pharmacy in Bryan, or from any member of the Brazos Valley Shrine club of Bryan.

They also will be sold at the stadium Saturday afternoon. Student season tickets will be good.

Radio station WTAW will broadcast the game, starting at 2. Charles Parker will do the play-by-play, and James Johnson will handle the color.

A fleet of buses is scheduled to bring Shriners and Texas football fans from Austin for the game. A crowd of about 10,000 is expected.

The Fish had a 40 minute polishing up session yesterday. A very light 20 minute workout is set for today.

Head Coach Paul Bryant announced yesterday that second-string quarterback Bobby Conrad and end Fred Maples will miss the game because of injuries suffered in practice this week.

Bryant announced this probable starting lineup for the Fish: Ends, Dean Meeks, 185, and Bobby Marks, 185; tackles, Charles Krueger, 210, and A. L. Simmons, 206; guards, Jim Stanley, 190, and Paul Lillard, 200; center, John Gilbert, 190, or Gerald Iler, 203;

Quarterback, Jimmy Wright, 175, halfbacks, John Crow, 200, and Ed Dudley, 185, or Loyd Taylor, 165; fullback, Ken Hall, 195, or Bobby Ewell, 172.

The Shorthorns will probably start this eleven: Ends, Don Wilson, 190, and Wayne Wash, 190; tackles, Will Wyman, 205, and Carl Larpenter, 220; guards, Mike Wells, 195, and Wes Wyman, 205; center Louis DelHomme, 202.

Quarterback, Walter Fendren, 160; halfbacks, Curtis Reeves, 165 and Mickey Smith, 170; fullback, Johnny Elam, 185.

Yesterday the varsity first team "looked pretty good" in a 10 minute defensive scrimmage, Bryant said, "but the 'Texas' freshman team pushed the second and third teams around pretty well."

Pursch Bowls 213 For High Game

Martin Pursch bowled a 213 last night, the high individual game in interteam competition on the Aggie bowling team.

Clay McFarland scored the high individual series, a 556 on scores of 203, 155, 198.

The team will start American Bowling congress league play Dec. 2.

Tigers Open Basketball Nov. 26 Here

With just one letterman back from last year's district titlists, A & M Consolidated opens its basketball season Friday, Nov. 26.

The Tigers will play either Navasota or Caldwell in the new G. Rollie White coliseum, depending on which team wins tonight's football game between those two schools. The winner advances into the state grid playoffs.

Guard J. B. Carroll is the only letterman back from last year's district 25-A champions who lost to Sweeny in the bidistrict playoff. He has been slowed by a football knee injury. Gone are starters Bobby Jackson, David Bonner, Roland Beasley, Pinky Cooner and Fred Anderson.

This season the district will not be split into two zones like last year. Each team plays a round-robin schedule, meeting each district rival once at home and on the road.

Coach Jim Bevans and assistant coach Edsel Jones have 23 prospects, including five seniors, seven juniors, seven sophomores and four freshmen.

The seniors are Carroll, Travis Engelbrecht, Jerry Oden, Winford Purdue and Don Turner.

SPORTS SHORTS

By JERRY WIZIG
 Battalion Sports Editor

The next-to-last weekend of Southwest Conference play will be unfolded this weekend, with things SWC's usual crazy, mixed-up situation.

This week's picks are:

Baylor 27, SMU 21.

Rice 21, TCU 18.

Arkansas 28, LSU 14.

A&M Fish 19, Texas Shorthorns 12.

Pony Offense Tops

The Mustangs, with a healthy Frank Eldom and Duane Nutt, present what is the best offense in the conference. Even with regular Don McIlhenny out last week, SMU rolled up three quick scores.

The Bears, however, will have Billy Hooper's throwing arm well-oiled, and Sweetwater's successor to Sammy Baugh probably will be throwing them long, short and often. SMU's defensive line looks too tough for the BU ground game, which lacks a really "big" power man.

Rice, not very impressive here last week, should have its hands full with the Frogs, who have been bothered lately with injuries. Jim Swink, TCU halfback, and Rice's Dicky Moegle offer the fans a high-powered offensive show. Swink, a soph, picked up 147 yards against Texas last week.

The Froggies have only a 4-4 record, but their losses were by a total of 18 points. They bowed to unbeaten Oklahoma 21-16 in the last quarter, to Arkansas 20-13 in the fourth period, to Baylor 12-7 on a fumble snatched in the air and returned for a touchdown, and to Texas 35-34 in the last two minutes.

Hogs Have First Big Injury

Arkansas has its first major casualty of the season, starting tackle Jim Roth, who suffered a knee injury last week. The Hogs, after finally playing the "bad" game everybody was looking for every week, should be ready for the dangerous Bengal Tigers.

At Kyle field, the Fish, hailed as one of the best crops of freshman footballers the Aggies have ever had, take on the improving Shorthorns. The Fish have been the most consistent, however, and deserve to be favored by a touchdown.
