

Aggs Try Comeback Wednesday Against Dangerous Tulsa Squad

Varsity Runs Through Long Offensive Drill

By JERRY WIZIG
Battalion Sports Editor

Still needing plenty of polishing, and showing it, the Aggie basketball team tries to bounce back against Tulsa university here Wednesday night after an opening loss to the University of Houston last Thursday.

Striving to get the improved play from his "front" men that the Cadets must have in order to win, Coach John Floyd sent his varsity through a long offensive drill yesterday.

Afterward, John DeWitt hustled his freshman team over a thorough workout schedule. The Fish open their season at 6 p.m. Wednesday against Arlington State in the first Aggie court doubleheader of the year.

Martinez, Norvell Win At Pistol Meet

Aggies Joe Martinez and Frank Norvell won the two-man team match in the Alamo City Invitational pistol meet held in San Antonio Saturday and Sunday.

Each shot 10 rounds of slow, timed rapid fire.

Norvell also won second place in marksman class total score and second place in timed and rapid fire, marksman class.

Martinez was second in slow fire, marksman class.

The pistol team practices at 7-9 p.m. Mondays and Thursdays, 1-4 p.m. Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

Anderson Top Ag Fencer At Austin

Walter Anderson won second place in the saber division and third in epee to lead Aggie performers in an individual meet of the Amateur Fencing League of America in Austin last week-end.

Other schools with entries were University of Houston, Rice, SMU, Houston Fencing club and the Galveston Buccaneers Fencing club.

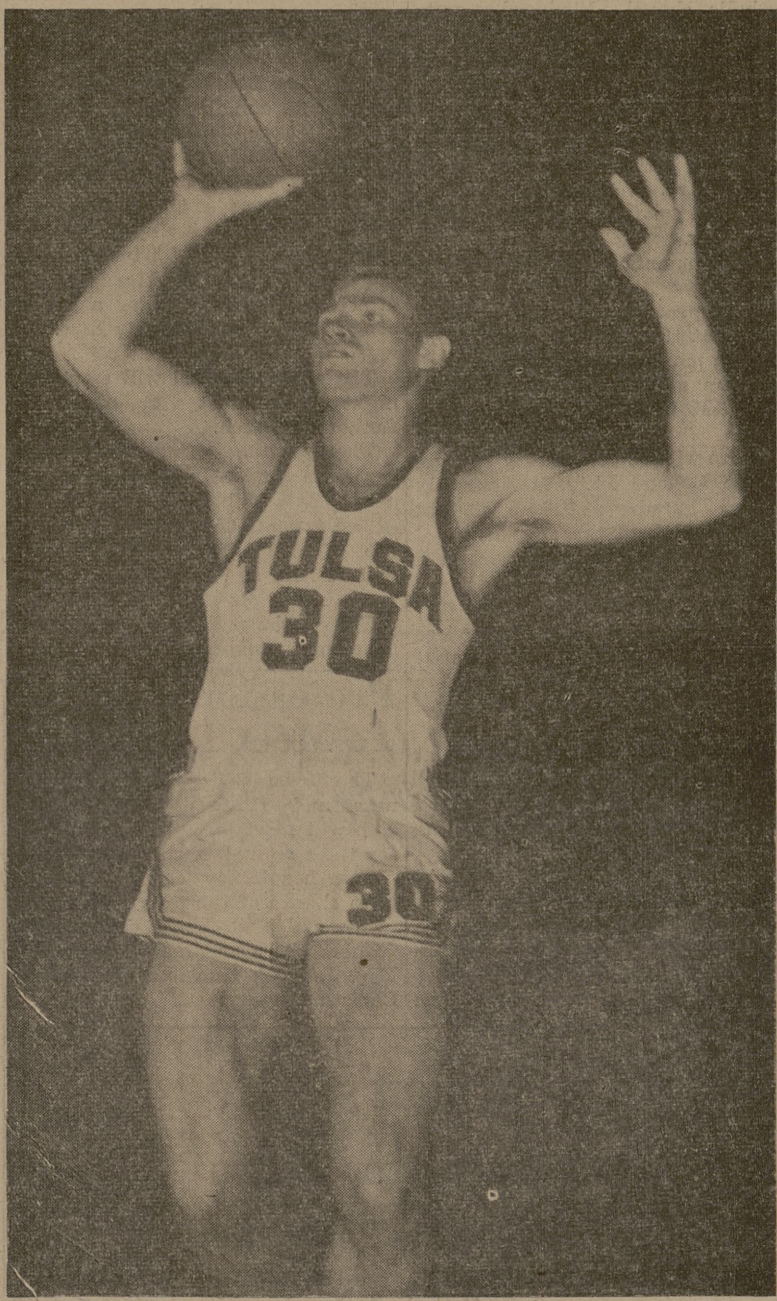

Aggies competing with Anderson were Bill Fink, who was sixth in saber finals, Johnny Shanks, who reached the semifinals in foil and Ted Castle.

CAMPUS CLEANERS

TOPS FOR TULSA—Bob Patterson, slick-shooting senior forward helps give Hurricane Coach Clarence Iba a tender for Missouri Valley conference honors. Iba is a brother of Oklahoma A&M coach Hank Iba, who coached John Floyd at the Stillwater school. Floyd also was an assistant coach there. Patterson has a fine fall-away jump shot and is a good rebounder.

CHS Plays Caldwell After Four Defeats

A&M Consolidated basketball teams meet a familiar opponent tonight, traveling to Caldwell for A and B games there after losing four games over the week-end.

It will be the third time the Tigers have met Caldwell this season. Friday night, CHS lost A and B games to the Hornets, 39-19 and 34-24. The A team beat them in their season opener.

The B team, which played three times in two days, also lost two games in the Tomball Invitational tournament. They bowed to Spring 54-26 in the first game, and lost 43-15 to Tomball in the second.

Welburn, Blieden Lead Ag Bowlers

Drummond Welburn and Joe Blieden took top honors in A&M Bowling club competition Thursday night.

Welburn had the high game, a 223. Blieden rolled a 549, the high series.

Team matches with Washington university, a Houston team and Trinity university are to be arranged.

Architecture Profs Down Students 18-16

Bones creaked and profs groaned as the architecture department professors defeated a team of their students 18-16 in a basketball "thriller" Friday night.

Richard Vrooman led the faculty attack with five points. Bill Sheveland was high point man for the game and sparked the student team with six points.

Played in 10 minute halves, the game ended 14-14 at the 20-minute mark, so the teams played a three minute overtime period. The students had rushed to a 14-2 lead at the end of the first half.

K. F. Robinson, a prof and the official score keeper, may have explained it. "There seemed to be a feeling in the last part of the game that grades might suffer if the score wound up in favor of the students," he said.

Two students, Paul Kennon and Jerry Jeffery, had to relieve some of the "winded" profs in the last part of the game, said prof Melvin Rotsch, the official timekeeper.

Vrooman, F. D. Lawyer, G. K. Vetter, T. R. Holloman, H. W. Gooding, Bill Wagner and Jack Lemmon played on the faculty team.

On the student team were Sheveland, Charles Willis, Don Burrows, Eugene Pelech, Kirby Kealey, Key Kolb, Cecil Steward, Tommy Short, John Cain, Ed Reeder and Gerald Cunningham.

Ag Football Team Will Be Honored

A&M's varsity football team will be honored at a dinner-dance in the Emerald room of the Shamrock hotel in Houston Thursday night.

The players and their wives or dates will be honored guests at the affair, given by the Houston A&M club.

Hour of Conditioning

Clubs Work Hard For Bowl Game

By RONNIE GREATHOUSE
Battalion Sports Staff

The 12th Man Bowl teams trudged off the practice field yesterday with heavy feet and heaving sides after an hour of wind sprints and conditioning exercises.

"Beat army," was the cry heard in the air force camp. "You boys keep it up, and we'll beat 'em," air force coach Elwood Kettler told his squad.

Billy Huddleston, backfield coach of the air force team, declined to single out any outstanding players. "They all look good, and they're a fightin' bunch," said Huddleston. "There are a lot of prospects."

Army's head coach, Bennie Sinclair, who will play in the East-West Shrine game, was pleased with the way his team was progressing.

"We're going to use the T formation," said Sinclair. "The squad will be cut to about 35 Tuesday, so we mean to get down to business."

"The line will be ready," assured Lawrence Winkler, army line coach.

The ground force coaching staff was bolstered by the addition of Lloyd Hale and Donald Robbins. They will both work with linemen. Don Watson, coach of the army backs, named Jim Morrison, Ted Minner, Glen Rand, Gilbert Petty, Deaner Woodruff, Bob Sanders, and Clinton Bippert among those showing promise.

All coaches agreed that it was still too early to form any definite ideas for starting teams. Many positions won't be decided until the teams go into pads three days before the game, they said.

Kickoff time for the Dec. 16 game is still undecided.

Getting Married At Christmas Time, Aggie?

If so, or at any time in the next few months, then you'll want to present the lucky girl with a life insurance policy as a part of the bargain package she'll be getting, won't you? A minister, in talking about marriage, recently made the following statement:

"You have no right to take a girl from a position where she may be earning her own living, and tie her up to you and later tie her down to a family of little children who make it difficult for her to make a living again—unless you give her some protection and security. Before you buy her a car, buy her an insurance policy—and after you buy the car you will need insurance all the more in these days of highway fatalities. Get her a policy before you get her a television set. Put first things first; let the other things come along as you can afford them."

Come by and talk with me if you are interested, and we'll see if we can't work out some plan of life insurance protection which you can afford until you get out of school and start earning enough money to pay for a more substantial policy.
