

Ag-Tulsa Tilt Features Two Similar Offenses

A&M basketball team meets the Tulsa Golden Hurricane tonight in a battle of offenses that are almost the same.

Both teams use a deliberate style attack, concentrating on breaking men open close to the basket.

The game will start at 8 p.m. in White coliseum.

The Aggie freshmen will open their season against Arlington State at 6 p.m.

Coach John Floyd announced only one change in the Aggie starting lineup from last week's opening game. Don Bilbrey, a 6-4 junior, will start at center, in place of sophomore Bob Gattis.

The rest of the Cadet lineup stays the same, with Roger Harvey and Pat McCrory, guards, George McHaffey and John Fortenberry at the forward positions.

"Considering the boys haven't had enough workouts, I'd say that they look real good," said Floyd.

Tulsa's probable starting team will be made up almost entirely of seniors. Sophomore guard Jerry Evans is the only non-senior, and is also the shortest member of the starting team at 5-11.

The Tulsa attack is led by center Dick Courter, tallest man on the starting squad. Courter scored 25 points in a 60-48 win over Baylor.

Bob Patterson, 6-4, and Bill Elliott, 6-1, will man the forward slots for Tulsa. Jerry Hacker, 6-1, and Evans hold down the guard positions.

Assistant Coach John DeWitt's freshman squad will yield a slight height advantage to Arlington.

"The freshmen are looking pretty good," said DeWitt, "and show that they're anxious to play ball."

The Fish team will have Fritzie Connelly at center, Jack Collier and Bryan Sutherland, guards, Gary Wells and J. C. Smith forwards.

Other freshman expected to see a lot of duty are Ted Dockery, Ervel Elswick, and Carter Williams.

Coaches Cut Bowl Squads To 35 Today

Air force and army squads for the 12th Man Bowl benefit football game will be cut to about 35 players today.

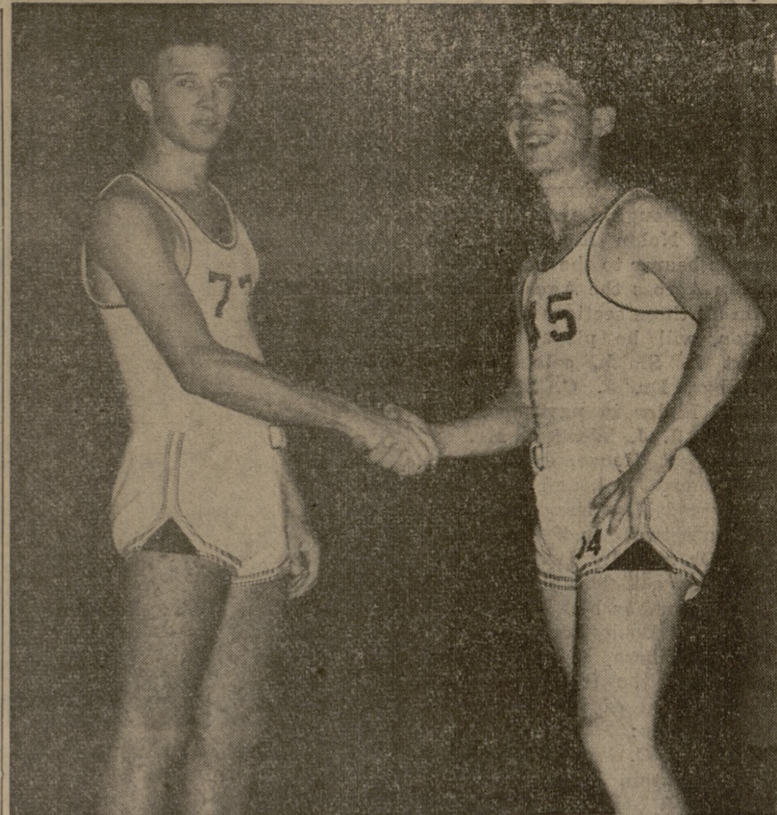

In previous workouts, the coaching staffs have been concentrating on getting a line on their best material. Now, the squads can focus attention on offensive and defensive setups.

Workouts in pads will start Monday.

Proceeds from the game, set for Dec. 16, will go to the 12th Man scholarship and the student aid fund. Kickoff will be at 3:30 p.m. Under an Executive committee ruling, all 3 p.m. classes will be excused. The corps will not march in.

Tickets are 50 cents and will be sold by unit athletic officers, the office of student activities in Goodwin hall and at the stadium gate.

Last year's contest brought about $1,700, the 1952 game about $2,000.

Tigers Lose Two To Caldwell Again

A&M Consolidated lost its second basketball doubleheader in a row to Caldwell last night, 37-35 and 24-19.

The Tiger A team, led by forward Norman Floeck, came from behind to go ahead 32-31 early in the final quarter. The Hornets then rallied for five points while holding the Tigers to three.

Caldwell led 11-2 at the end of the first quarter, 24-17 at the half and 28-25 at the three-quarter mark. Center Perry Schwierzke totaled 12 points, forward John Heldman had 11.

Schwierzke, Heldman and forward Herby Fedora dominated the backboards for Caldwell through most of the game.

Guard Bill Hall scored nine points for the Tiger B team as Consolidated rang up nine points in the final quarter while holding Caldwell scoreless. The rally wasn't enough to overcome a 16-8 half-time deficit.

Forward Frank Sebesta and guard Buster Harvey led Caldwell with 6 points each. Sebesta had scored 15 in the last game, but last night forward Bobby Potts held him under control.

The Tigers play again at 3:30 p. m. Friday, meeting Rockdale in an opening round game of the Bryan Chamber of Commerce Invitational tournament.

This one's on you

We mean the collar . . . and if you're a really smart clothesman, you'll keep several Arrow spread-collar shirts on hand. Pick Arrow Par, left ($3.95). Pick a smart Arrow Bi-way spread, right ($5.00). Pick any of the smooth spread styles. But be sure you pick an Arrow. For immaculate tailoring, and the "custom look," Arrow's the shirt by far. Prices begin at $3.95.

Note the slotted collar for day-long neatness.

Success Story . . .

AND HOW IT STARTED. FRED BIRMINGHAM says: "I've wanted to be an editor ever since I worked on a boy's magazine at age 8. After being an editor of the Dartmouth literary magazine (The Dart), I set my sights on Esquire. It took 18 years of hard work to achieve the editorship — after struggling as a newsmagazine cub, cartoon and essay writer, advertising copy writer and trade paper editor."

"I started smoking CAMELS 12 years ago. I've tried many other brands, but my choice always is Camel. No other brand is so mild — yet so rich-tasting!"
