Wise Santas Learn To Give Jewelry

By the Associated Press
Wise Santas have learned that the surest way to make a woman happy at Christmas time is to give her jewelry.

No matter her age or her type, every woman is flattered by a gift of jewelry.

This year you can't go wrong with a gift of a long rope necklace, either of real cultured pearls or merely colorful fake jewels, to be wrapped around and around her throat or knotted in a long string.

It's the vogue of the moment, and no woman can ever have too many. Matching earrings and bracelet will complete the picture.

Earrings may be discreet single pearls, correct for any occasion, tailored simple gold hoops for wear with suits and daytime clothes, or fantastic glittering danglers for evening wear.

In costume jewelry, the sky's the limit. Any woman would like several ropes of gay fake jewels in different colors, to wear all at once, or half-a-dozen inexpensive bracelets to make a gay splash with a black dress, or a really splashy big rhinestone pin, to wear on a lapel. It's easy to flatter a woman with jewelry, whether you spend one or a thousand dollars.
