

Army Trounces Air Force 27-0

Line, Sanders Lead the Way

A big, sharp blocking line opened up holes for fullback Bob Sanders and stifled the air force offense as the army ground out a 27-0 win on Kyle field yesterday in the third annual 12th Man Bowl football game.

The victory before about 4,000 was the second for the army, following a 0-0 tie last year and their 6-0 win in 1952. Sanders scored the '52 touchdown.

Sanders, a 185 pounder from A field artillery, was the big offensive gun, scoring twice, on 5 and 21 yard runs, and gaining 81 yards on 14 carries.

Quarterback Jimmy Morrison displayed some sharp ballhandling and running for the ground force, but in the final analysis, it was the experience and aggressive play of their forward wall that paid off for the army.

Line standouts were ends Ken Briggs, A AAA; Wendell Baker, A Athletics; Bill Abraham, A Armor; tackles Bob Goble, D Infantry; Louis DeHaes, Law hall; Al Zukero; Sam Zukero; guards Ciro Lampasas, A transportation corps; Bob Peters, A Signal; Lee Richards, A Infantry; and centers Ogen Bass, A composite, and Joe Jahns, A chemical.

Backs Charles Durham, A signal; Jerry Houston; Bob McCarn, B Infantry; and Deaner Woodruff, ASA, played well.

For the air force, which never got past its own 28 yard line in the second half, halfback Adrian Helms, squadron 16, was the only back who could gain consistently. He picked up 25 yards on four tries.

Quarterback Charlie Ritchey was rushed off his feet by the army line throughout most of the game and failed to complete a pass in six tries.

The air force tried 10 passes, completed one for a yard. Another 10 yard completion by Ritchey was nullified by a penalty.

Morrison, Glen Rand and Alvin Grantham passed sparingly, but one from Morrison to Briggs covered 37 yards late in the second quarter for the third army score and a 20-0 halftime lead.

The game then was scoreless until the last play, when Grantham sneaked over from the 1. The army had taken over on the air force 8 when Ritchey was tackled on a desperation fourth down pass try.

A bad snap back on a fourth down punt attempt late in the first quarter set up the first touchdown and on the last play of the period, Sanders smashed over. Morrison's kick was wide.

In the second quarter, Ted Muen-ter fell on airman J. M. Denard's fumble on the air force 29, and the army scored two plays later.

Morrison, back to pass on first down, raced up the middle to the 21. On the next play, Sanders blasted at center, shook off two tacklers at about the 15 and rumbled into the end zone.

Halfback Jimmy Richardson converted.

The air force couldn't move the ball, and Houston returned the kick nine yards to the air force 37.

McCarn was stopped for no gain, then Morrison fired a jump pass to Briggs, who stayed on his feet after several tacklers took shots at him and ran for the touchdown. Richardson converted again.

The air force got its biggest break shortly afterward, when tackle Bill Garrett recovered a fumbled punt on the army 39. Two passes by Ritchey were incomplete, and the half ended.

Army took the second half kickoff on its 21 and marched to the air force 5, but a clipping penalty set them back to the 20 and the air force finally took over on the 6.

Line blasts by Sanders paced the drive to the 20. There Morrison hit Durham with a pass on the left sideline good for 14 yards. Sanders got to the 5, but the army was clipping.

On fourth down from the 20, Rand jump passed to Abraham to the six, where the air force took over.

Willie Mays Wins NL 'Most Valuable'

NEW YORK, Dec. 16 (AP)—Willie Mays, the acrobatic center fielder who won the National League batting championship and helped the New York Giants sweep the pennant and World Series, yesterday was voted most valuable player in the league.

Down in San Juan, where Mays is leading the Puerto Rican winter league with a .428 average with the Santurce club, Willie's comment was a characteristic, "that's good."

Mays took the award in stride, commenting that he thought Johnny Antonelli, his Giants' teammate, had a good chance of winning it. "Antonelli, he could have got it," said Mays. "He won 20 games."

Support Faded

Antonelli, however, didn't receive as much support as some thought he would get. The final totals of the vote by the 24-man committee, three from each league city of the Baseball Writers Asso. of America, rated Mays, Cincinnati's Ted Kluszewski, Antonelli, Brooklyn's Duke Snider and New York's Alvin Dark in that order.

Mays received 16 of the 24 firsts and Kluszewski, who led both leagues with 49 homers and 141 runs batted in, drew seven firsts. The other first-place vote went to Dark. On the basis of points, 14 for first and then 9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1, Mays had 283, Kluszewski 217, Antonelli 154, Snider 135 and Dark 110.

Musial Sixth

Stan Musial of St. Louis, winner in 1943-46-48, finished sixth with 97 points, followed by Philadelphia's Robin Roberts, 70, Milwaukee's Joe Adcock 60, Brooklyn's Pee Wee Reese 53, and Gil Hodges, 40.

Roy Campanella, winner in 1951 and 1953 but handicapped by a hand injury during '54, didn't get a single point. Neither did teammate Jackie Robinson of Brooklyn who won in 1949. Hank Sauer of Chicago, who won in 1952, received only one point.

Diamonds Set For Drill Field

Two new intramural baseball fields are being set up on the main drill field, said Barney Welch, director of intramural sports. One diamond will be located across from Bizzell hall, the other across from the Grove.

The fields will replace two old ones that were taken over by new parking lots. One of the old diamonds was located behind dorm 11, the other behind Law hall.

The backstops, moved from the old fields, will be set in place on the drill field as soon as possible, said Welch.

3-A, 4-A Grid Finals Set This Weekend

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

Two games tonight get the Texas schoolboy football campaign off on its biggest weekend of the fading season.

Both games are in the lower brackets—Killeen vs. Freer at San Marcos in Class AA and Albany vs. Paducah at Wichita Falls in Class A—and the big showdowns come Saturday when championships of classes AAAA and AAA will be determined.

Battling at Houston will be Abilene and Austin of Houston for the Class AAAA title. Breckenridge plays Port Neches at Breckenridge for the Class AAA diamond.

Classes AA and A decide finalists. Phillips and Terrell play at Vernon Saturday to determine the Freer-Killeen winner's foe in the Class AA championship game next week. Mason and Deer Park swat it out at Mason Saturday night to decide the opponent of the Paducah-Albany winner in the Class A finals.

Paducah puts the gaudiest record in Texas on the line against once-beaten Albany. The Dragons have won 13 games, scoring 711 points in the process. They will be favored against Albany but are wary about it—Albany it was that toppled heavily backed Sundown last week.
