

Churches Set Holiday Services

College Station churches have set their week-end schedules. Many have planned special services for Christmas.

St. Thomas Episcopal Chapel
Christmas services will begin with a choral Eucharist and sermon at 11:30 p.m. Friday, Christmas Eve. The Christmas morning service of Holy Communion will be at 10 a.m.

Holy Communion will be at 8 a.m. Sunday morning. Church school and morning prayer will run concurrently, beginning at 9:30 a.m. There will be no 11 o'clock service.

Christian Science Services
The everpresent power of God which brings courage, joy, and healing to men of all ages, wherever it is understood, will be emphasized at the Christian Science service Sunday at 11 a.m. The service will be preceded at 9:30 by church school.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Christian Science" will include the following selection from the Bible (Matthew 2: 1, 2): "Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judaea in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem, saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him."

The Golden Text is from II Peter (1:21): "The prophecy came not in old time by the will of man; but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost."

St. Mary's Catholic Chapel
Two masses will be held Christmas Day at St. Mary's Chapel, one beginning at 12 midnight Friday, Christmas Eve, and the other at 9 a.m. Saturday.

There will be only one mass Sunday, at 9 a.m.

Confessions will be heard from 4 to 5:30 p.m. and from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. Friday.

A&M Christian Church
Because the Rev. Clarence Ketch will be out of town this week, there will be no sermon at the 11 o'clock worship service Sunday. A Communion service will be held at this hour.

Church school will be at 9:45 a.m.

Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints
Worship service will begin at 10 o'clock Sunday morning in the YMCA chapel.

Faith Evangelical and Reformed Church
"Christmas in Its Deeper Meaning" is the topic for Rev. R. F. Buck's sermon at 9 a.m. Saturday. Holy Communion will be ministered at this service.

Raymond F. Buck, jr., son of the pastor, will deliver the sermon at 10:30 a.m. Sunday. He is attending the Eden Theological Seminary at Webster Grove, a suburb of St. Louis, Mo.

Rev. Buck sr. will talk on "The Value of Retrospection" at 7:30 p.m. Sunday.

First Baptist Church
Services Sunday will be at the regular hours, with church school at 9:40 a.m., worship at 10:50 a.m. and at 7:15 p.m., and Training Union at 6:15 p.m.

College Heights Assembly of God
Church school will be at 9:45 Sunday morning, followed at 11 a.m. by the worship service. The young people's service and the evening worship service will begin at 6:30 and 7:30 p.m. respectively.

Our Saviour's Lutheran Church
"The Christmas Glory that Centers in Bethlehem" is the theme for the candlelight service to be held at 7:30 p.m. Friday.

Services Sunday morning are church school at 9:30 and worship at 10:45. At the latter service the Rev. Thomas Swygart will speak on the subject "Will the Lord's Loving Kindness Last Forever?"

A&M Presbyterian Church
There will be two worship services Sunday morning, at 8:30 and 11 a.m.

At 9:45 a.m. will be church school.

Church of Christ
"Looking Behind" and "Looking Ahead" are the sermon topics scheduled for the Sunday morning and evening services respectively. These services are at 10:45 a.m. and 7:15 p.m.

Church school begins at 9:45 a.m. Sunday.

Church of the Nazarene
At the morning worship service at 11 Sunday, the Rev. Harold Carlisle will speak on "The Tragedy of Disobedience."

Sunday school is at 10 a.m. A young people's meeting is scheduled for 7 p.m., to be followed at 7:45 by evening worship.

A&M Methodist Church
"Babel or Bethlehem?" the Rev. Nolan Vance will ask in his sermon at 10:55 a.m. Sunday. At this service Miss Jean Ann Smith will sing "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte.

Church school is set for 9:45 a.m. The Methodist Youth Fellowship will meet at 6:30.

Nativity Pageant To Be Presented

The Faith Evangelical and Reformed church, at South College and Williamson drive in Bryan, will present a live pageant of the Nativity Scene Dec. 23, 24 and 25 from 7 to 10 p.m. each evening.

The pageant, which has been in preparation since September, will be shown on the church lawn facing College road.

Spectators will hear amplified Christmas carols during the program in which live animals will be used.

There will be a change of characters every 30 minutes and over 75 church members will participate. The scene, which has no speaking parts, will show Mary, Joseph and the three shepherds.

When you are baking and frosting a large quantity of cookies for holiday serving and giving, you may find it useful to put a wire refrigerator shelf into service as a cooling rack.

CAR Installs Officers

The Brazos De Dios Society of the Children of the American Revolution met at the home of Mrs. J. M. Nance in North Oakwood for its December meeting.

During the meeting the junior officers were installed in office by senior president Mrs. R. E. Patterson. The junior officers are Miss Pamela Sperry, president; Miss Margaret Brown, secretary;

Miss Jeanette Sperry, treasurer; Miss Sharon Patterson, registrar; Stephen Darwall, chaplain and F. B. Brown IV, reporter.

After the business meeting the children were served cookies and cold drinks from a Christmas decorated table. Presents were exchanged by the group at the Christmas tree and Mrs. J. B. Page told a Christmas story to the children.

Recreation Council To Have Kid Party

The College Station Recreation Council will have its annual Christmas party for children Friday at 7 p.m. in the A&M Consolidated High school cafeteria, Mrs. C. G. White said yesterday.

Program for the evening will be presented by College Station children, she said, and Santa Claus will be there to present treats to all the youngsters.

Queen Gives Cooking A Try

LONDON—(AP)—Queen Elizabeth is taking a hand at doing her own cooking. And like many a housewife she has had her troubles.

The story came out recently in the Sunday Graphic that the Queen enjoys preparing a snack when getting home late from official engagements while staying at Windsor Castle so as to save her staff the bother.

She first tried frying bacon and eggs and making a pot of tea. The Duke of Edinburgh, a Navy man who likes to putter around the kitchen himself, came up with some cookery tips on a few continental dishes that call for a good sprinkling of garlic and onions.

The new kitchen in the castle at Windsor is just off the royal boudoir.

Mistletoe Hunters Snipe For Kiss Bait

MOUNT VERNON, Ind.—(AP)—You can buy mistletoe for Christmas kiss bait at a shop or you can get it the way gallant hunters do here—shoot it down yourself out of the treetops.

The parasite green grows so high in elm, black walnut and shellbark hickory trees in the nearby river bottoms that shooting it down is easier than climbing after it.

The sharper-eyed hunters use hollow-point bullets in a .22 caliber rifle, aiming a line of shots that will cut off a limb on which the mistletoe is growing.

A choke-bore shotgun is used to shoot a clump off at the point where it is rooted into the bark of a tree.

The archers are trying their own method. They attach a trailing cord to an arrow, arc it over the tree branch, then pull on the two ends to dislodge the mistletoe from the limb.

PRINCE OF PEACE

Many centuries ago, in far-away Judea, a little child was born to humble parents. Its cradle was a manger. Its surroundings were poor and unsightly. Sympathetic village women must have ministered to the needs of the mother.

But a brilliant new star shone above this humble birthplace, and those whose ears were attuned to the infinite heard an angel chorus singing "Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace, good will toward men!"

It was the birthday of the Saviour.

This story has been told often, but it loses none of its charm in the telling. It grips men today as does no other human saga. For the birth at Bethlehem turned a new page in world history and gave new hope to mankind.

Throughout the civilized world today people are singing Christmas carols and repeating the drama of the Saviour's birth. Some day, when His spirit triumphs, men will turn from war and strife to the peace that comes from God.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
