A&M Consolidated Correspondent

The matinee performance of the Houston Symphony tomorrow afternoon has been opened to Consolidated students. The school will provide transportation on buses to the G. Rollie White coliseum and students will be excused from classes at 2:30 p.m. Those in high school must purchase tickets from the office prior to leaving the campus. Admission price is 50 cents.

In connection with the concert, musicians from the high school band demonstrated various instruments to the elementary students in grades 1-4 to familiarize them with an orchestra.

Five students have signed up for a class in driver training but at least three more are needed for the course to be offered. A charge of $15 per student must be made to cover expenses and salary of an instructor.

Senior boys had a percentage attendance of 98.73 to put them first on the high school attendance record. Freshman boys and girls followed closely with 98.38 per cent. Sophomore girls, junior boys, sophomore boys, senior girls, and junior girls placed in that order with 93.99 the lowest mark.
