

Bilbrey Shows Well

By JERRY WIZIG
Battalion Sports Editor

Roger Harvey, John Fortenberry and George Mehaffey turned in good performances in a 30-minute game-type scrimmage yesterday, but reserve center Don Bilbrey stole the show as the Aggies prepared for their Saturday game with the University of Houston.

It was the first workout for A&M since the 93-69 defeat to SMU in Dallas Tuesday night, and it showed during much of the practice session.

In a 30-minute offensive drill before the scrimmage, the starters looked ragged. Not until Bilbrey, a 6-3½ transfer from Cameron junior college, started hitting with about nine minutes left in the scrimmage did the regulars pull away from the reserves. The final score was 37-23.

Coach John Floyd, who scouted Houston's 75-63 win over Oklahoma City university Wednesday night, said 7-foot center Don Boldebeck has "come a long way" since his first game for the Cougars—against A&M.

Boldebeck scored 28 points and has an average of 27 points a game. Floyd said, "I guess we'll put Mehaffey on him and pray."

The Aggies will hold a shorter workout today and go to Houston by bus tomorrow afternoon. Floyd said he probably will take a 10-man team.

Thirteen Fish also will make the trip for the Freshmen's sixth game of the season, against the Cougar frosh, who played their first game Wednesday night, defeating Victoria junior college, 76-68.

The 89-80 victory by the Fish over Tyler junior college set another A&M single-game scoring record, for the third time this season.

Tomorrow night, Harvey and Lee Smith probably will start at guard, Bill Brophy and Fortenberry at forward and Mehaffey at center.

Harvey has held three of the best guards in the conference—Jerald Barnett of Arkansas, Monte Robicheaux of Rice and Art Barnes of SMU—to a total of 18 points, while scoring 22 himself.

CHS Teams Enter Two Tournaments

This is tournament weekend for A&M Consolidated basketball teams, with the Tigers competing in the Navasota invitational tournament and the Kittens playing in the Madisonville tournament.

The Tigers, led by Norman Floeck and Manuel Garcia, played Snook at 2 p.m. today in their first-round game in Navasota. Other first round games there are Magnolia-Waller, Iola-Katy, La Grange-Navasota.

21-22, the B team won 29-6 and led 25-0 at the end of the third quarter.

Tiger scoring record follows:

	FG	FT	PF	TP
Floek	57	43	18	157
Garcia	54	25	25	143
Carroll	35	13	21	83
Englebrecht	18	16	18	52
Oden	14	16	24	44
Perryman	5	8	4	18
Hickman	2	2	2	6

Richards and the Bryan B team drew byes.

The Kittens take on Hearne at 7:30 p.m. in Madisonville, following a double header split last night with Brenham. The A team lost

Connley Isn't Connley, It's Connally

The Fish basketball team has completed nearly one-half its season now, and its leading scorer will finally get his name spelled right.

For five games now, the top scorer has been billed as Fritzie Connley, a second-semester freshman from San Antonio. "Connley" is actually Connally, though.

It seems that Fritzie didn't get around to telling his coach, John DeWitt, that his name was misspelled on the roster until Wednesday.

Four To Miss Ag Swim Meet Here Saturday

With four Cadets out because of illness, the Aggie swimming team opens its home season at 2:30 p.m. Saturday in P. L. Downs, jr. natatorium, meeting Northwest Louisiana State.

Admission will be free. Only other home meets are with Florida State and University of Florida between semesters and the conference meet March 10-12.

Gayle Klipple, freestyler and distance man, John Speich, sprinter, Wynne Snoots, backstroke, and diver Robert Martin are the Aggies who will miss the meet.

Top contenders for Art Adamson's team will be Dick Weick, Don Horn, Norman Ufer and Dick Hunkler.

Weick holds the conference record in the 100-yard breaststroke and made the all-America team in 1953. Horn is SWC champ in the 50-yard free style. Ufer, a soph, set a high school record in the 100-yard backstroke at Houston's Reagan and made the 1953 all-America high school team.

Hunkler, also a sophomore, was the state 100-yard freestyle champ at Reagan.

Intramural Results

Walton hall romped to a 14-2 victory over Milner hall yesterday in upperclassmen intramural football.

In other games, Leggett hall won over Mitchell hall, 7-0; and Puryear hall won over Law hall on penetrations.

In the finals of freshmen horsehoes, A ordnance beat C anti-aircraft artillery, 3-0.

Last night the intramural managers and the intramural sports-writer were treated to a barbecue dinner at the Grove.

Before coming to the Green Bay Packers in the NFL, Tobin Rote led Rice to two Southwest conference grid championships.
