

A&M Plays Baylor With Third at Stake

Out to jump back into the middle of the Southwest conference race against Baylor tonight in Waco following the second worst defeat in its cage history, A&M's basketball team takes the court for the fourth time in 11 days.

The Cadets put up a 3-10 season record and a 1-2 conference mark against BU's 6-7 season and 2-2 league records.

An A&M win would boost the Cadets into a third place tie with Arkansas if Rice loses to TCU tonight in Houston as expected.

Radio station KORA will broadcast the game, starting at 8 p.m., with Mike Mistovich doing the play-by-play.

In a 6 p.m. opener, the Aggie Fish, losers in both their previous road games, meet the Baylor Cubs. The Freshmen have a 4-2 season record following their 49-66 loss to the Houston frosh Saturday night.

Tonight coach John Floyd is due to start John Fortenberry and Roger Harvey at guard, George Me-haffey and Bill Brophy at forward and Don Bilbrey on the post. Baylor, which lost to Arkansas 73-63 in Fayetteville Saturday, will open with Al White and Jerry Jordan at guard, Murray Bailey and Jerry Mallett at forward, and 6-8 Don Dickson at center.

John DeWitt's Fish will have Bryan Sutherland and Willard Hutto at guard, Fritzie Connally and Gary Ewert at forward, and Ted Dockery at center. Starting guard J.
