

A&M Matches Outside Shots Against LSU Zone

Fish Play Allen Tonight In Prelim to Varsity Game

With two defeats at its hands still fresh, A&M's varsity basketball team stakes a sharp-passing offense and outside shooting against LSU's zone defense tonight in White coliseum in the feature attraction of a cage doubleheader.

The Aggies lost to the Tigers 73-61 in a December game at Baton Rouge two nights after a 53-82 loss to Tulane, which also threw up a zone at the Cadets.

Varsity game time is 8 p.m., and radio station KORA will broadcast the contest, Mike Mistovich handling the play-by-play. In a 6 p.m. opener, the Aggie Fish, 5-2 over the season, meet Allen academy in their last game before next semester.

It will be the last freshman game for Fritzie Connally, leading Fish scorer with 103 points and 78 rebounds. Guard Bryan Sutherlin has 102 points. The Fish downed Allen 80-56 in Bryan.

Coch John Floyd said yesterday he probably will start Bill Brophy, John Fortenberry, Roger Harvey, Don Bilbrey and George Mehaffey, but added he didn't know yet what positions they would play.

The Aggie practice performance yesterday ranged from fair to good and the Cadets concentrated on a passing game with outside set and jump shots, the way to open up the zone.

Tonight the Tigers probably will start 6-5 Ned Clark at center, Dick Holt and Jim McNeilly, both also 6-5, at forward, and Norman Magee, 5-11, and Don Sebastian, 5-10 at guard. LSU held Kentucky, top team in the country, to a two point win.

Clark scored 24 points and had 28 rebounds while Magee counted 21 in the first A&M-LSU game. Brophy had 28 for A&M and Mehaffey, who scored 31 against Baylor, scored 16. Brophy has 219 for the season, Fortenberry 200 and Mehaffey 155.

Saturday night A&M meets TCU here, its sixth game in 14 days.

MURAL HIGHLIGHTS

Eddie Gilmore, Bruce Terry, and Jerry Betsill paced C anti-aircraft artillery to a rousing 31-21 victory over B engineers in upperclassmen intramural football yesterday.

Gilmore tossed two touchdown passes and completed another for the point after. Terry connected for two touchdown heaves, while Betsill hauled in three touchdown passes and caught another for the point after.

In other games, squadron 15 blanked squadron 6, 6-0; B armor edged C field artillery on penetrations; and squadron 20 won over B composite on penetrations.

Mayfield Named Aggie Club Head

John C. Mayfield of Houston will serve as president of the Aggie club for the next year following the group's annual meeting here last weekend.

Mayfield will succeed H. C. Heldenfels of Corpus Christi. The Aggie club is an organization of former students who contribute to the athletic department in the form of athletic scholarship funds.

Pat Stanford of Midland was chosen vice-president and Homer Adams of College Station was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Directors elected include C. L. Babcock of Beaumont, W. T. Burns of Monterrey, Mexico, J. H. Cuthrell of New Orleans, Herman Heep of Austin, Joe McReynolds of Tulsa, E. N. Mitchell of Abilene, Murphy Dalton of Dallas and Heldenfels.

Winkler Elected

Lawrence Winkler, a three-year Aggie football letterman, has been elected president of the "T" association, composed of lettermen in major sports at A&M.
