

For Pack 802

Cub Scout Awards Given

About 75 awards were given to almost 50 College Station Cub Scouts Tuesday at the January Pack meeting of Pack 802. Cub

Master Jack Fugate and Executive Committee Chairman Sidney Loveless presented the awards to the Cubs who had completed their achievement requirements. Den 6 was awarded the Red Banner for winning the inspection contest and will fly the banner on its den flag for the next month. Mrs. E. C. Wright is Den Mother of Den 6.

David Bailey of Den 1 was given a prize by Loveless for submitting the winning name in a contest to choose a name for the Pack 802 newspaper. The winning name was Cub Tracks.

Den 3 was awarded Cubby, a mechanical man who is the symbol of the best attendance of parents at a Pack meeting. Den 4 will get possession of Cubby in February for having the best percentage of attendance at Tuesday's meeting.

Den 1 was recognized for the fact that every Cub in Den 1 has now earned his Lion's Badge, the highest regular rank a Cub can attain. Most of these Cubs will enter the new Webelos Den.
