

Aggies Take On Krebs, Ponies Here Tonight

A&M will try to play the role of "spoiler" here tonight against SMU's Mustangs, currently deadlocked for second place in the Southwest conference cage race.

The Mustangs, only one game back of front running TCU, need every possible win to stay up with the fast moving Frogs.

SMU is led by gangling Jim Krebs, a 6-8 sophomore who has already broken the school's all time scoring record for a single season with 394 points. Krebs is second in scoring over the full season among SWC players.

Coach John Floyd won't change his defense to cover Krebs, preferring the man for man type used all season.

Floyd plans to start Ted Harrod and Bill Brophy at the guard posts, John Henry and John Fortenberry at forwards and George Mehaffey at center.

Abilene Christian College's A Cappella chorus under the direction of its blind conductor, Dr. Leonard Burford, will present a halftime program.

A&M set a scoring record for Aggie teams in the Aggie-Texas series last Saturday night, but lost a close 80-76 contest to the Longhorns.

The Aggies led most of the second half taking the lead with 13:33 left in the game and held on until Texas' Ellis Olmstead tipped in a field goal, and then added a free throw with 35 seconds left.

Center George Mehaffey was high point man for the Aggies with 22 tallies.

A&M hit almost 50 per cent of its shots, bucketing 24 of 50 field goal attempts. The Aggies out-rebounded Texas, 77-55.
