Ag Baseballers Stage First Practice Game

Aggie baseballers hustled through their first intrasquad game yesterday on a wet and chilly Kyle field.

The two teams wound up the afternoon in a 3-3 deadlock. Sophomore third baseman Billy Ross smashed a homerun over the left field wall in the seventh inning of the contest with Louis Nelson on base, the longest hit of the afternoon.

Pitchers for the afternoon were Doug Mullins, Elo Zatopek and Tex Vanzura.

"We've got the best team in the league," said Jimmy Williams, all-Southwest conference catcher last season, "and if we hit, we'll win this year."

Coach R. C. (Beau) Bell has nine returning lettermen from last year's fourth place SWC team, plus some promising sophomores.

The Aggies open the season here against Sam Houston State next Wednesday.

'Mural Highlights

B anti-aircraft artillery won over A quartermaster corps yesterday, 6-0, in the finals of upperclassmen intramural football. In the other play-off game, maroon band won over squadron 9, 18-7.

In freshmen volleyball, squadron 1 beat squadron 19, 2-1; squadron 20 edged squadron 2, 2-1.

Squadron 3 sank squadron 21, 2-0; squadron 18 bested A chemical corps, 3-2; squadron 15 shutout C anti-aircraft artillery, 2-0; squadron 16 beat A signal corps, 2-0; squadron 17 won over A quartermaster corps, 2-0; and squadron 14 managed to win over B anti-aircraft artillery, 2-1.

"Athletics now aren't like the band, for instance," Bryant said. "There you can take a boy who knows how to play a horn a little, and have him tootle and tootle and blow and blow until he learns to play."

Seems like the man has something, as usual.

RE Dorm Leader To Speak Friday

The Rev. Bob Breihan, one of the leaders of Religious Emphasis week and an associate director of the Wesley foundation at the University of Texas, will speak at the Wesley foundation Friday at 7:15 p.m.

"His message will be an appropriate close to Religious Emphasis week as well as an account of some of his experiences in mission work on the Philippines," the Rev. Bob Monk, Wesley director, said.

Members of the foundation also plan to hold a youth revival in Calvert this weekend. The purpose of the revival is to carry to the youth of the Calvert church their witness for Christ.
