said. "We've got plenty of lovers now."

Saturday, the Reds, quarterbacked by Conrad, squared off against senior squadman Ronald Robbins' Greens. On the second play, soph halfback Loyd Taylor, a stubby 5-8 speedster, took a hand-off and sped about 75 yards. Later, Pardee broke away for about 40 yards. Letterman halfback Billy Pete Huddleston raced about 60 yards for the Greens.

Later, Wright's Blues took on the Whites. Sophs Ken Hall, Ed Dudley and John Crow were in the Blue backfield, but its offense sputtered because of bad pitchouts and handoffs.

Anderson Article Published In Medical Library Book

Most English professors' writings get published in little magazines mainly devoted to publishing the writings of English professors, but the work of A&M's John Q. Anderson is an exception.

One of his stories on a legendary doctor was good enough in history and readability to be published recently in the bulletin of the Medical Library association.

The story, "Henry Clay Lewis, Alias the Louisiana Swamp Doctor," is part of a full-length novel Anderson has written about Lewis' life. The Boston Public Library quarterly also published another of Anderson's stories, "Emerson and Manifest Destiny," in its January issue.

Anderson is a graduate of Kelton high school in Wheeler. He took his bachelor's degree at Oklahoma A&M in 1939, and his master's at Louisiana State university in 1948.

He did graduate work at the University of Texas, and received his PhD from the University of North Carolina in 1952.

Mrs. Randolph Blumberg

Ann McClellan Weds Randolph Blumberg

Miss Ann Frances McClellan became the bride of Randolph Blumberg, Saturday in the First Methodist church of Gatesville. The Rev. Roy A. Langston of Ennis, great-uncle of the bride, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Lt. Col. and Mrs. James Edward McClellan of Gatesville. She pledged Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority at Southern Methodist university. She was graduated from Texas State College for Women, where she majored in home economics education and was a member of Alpha Chi, Phi Upsilon Omicron, Pi Lambda Theta scholarship fraternities and Delian social club.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Randolph J. Blumberg of San Antonio. He received his BS and MS degrees in electrical engineering from A&M and is a member of Tau Beta Pi, Sigma Xi and the Texas A&M Scholarship society. He was given the United Gas fellowship in engineering oceanography and is now working on his PhD in this field.

Miss Mamie Sue Halbrook was organist at the ceremony and accompanied Mrs. Byron Leaird jr., soloist.

Mrs. William Post Chamlee and Miss Lynn Lowrey, both of Gatesville, attended the bride, and Richard M. Adams of College Station was best man. Karl Meyers of College Station was groomsmen and Ray Holbrook of Texas City and Harry Auvermann of Austin ushered.

The bride wore a full length gown of candlelight Irish taffeta which extended into a chapel train in the back. Her gown was fashioned with a low scooped neckline and fitted bodice of Chantilly lace embroidered with iridescent sequins and seed pearls. Her fingertip veil of candlelight illusion was held by pearl coronet. She carried an old fashion bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

A reception was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Lowrey in Gatesville, the bride's cousins. After the reception the couple left for a wedding trip to Mexico.

Rites Conducted For Cullen Infant

Funeral services for Dorris Jan Cullen, 10 day old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Cullen, 2010 Orman St. in Bryan, were held Monday at 2 p.m. in the Callaway-Jones drawing room. Burial was in Babyland in the Bryan City cemetery.

Born Feb. 17, the child is survived by the parents; three brothers, Robert jr., Patrick and Philip; and the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lange of Bryan.

Cullen is typographer artist for the A&M Press.
