Intrasquad Game Climaxes Day

By JERRY WIZIG
Battalion Sports Editor

Part, but not all, of the curtain goes up tomorrow night on Paul (Bear) Bryant's second football team at A&M when the Maroons and Whites tangle at 7:30 on Kyle field.

The game is only the ninth day of spring practice for the Aggies, who started Feb. 22. The Maroons, dubbed the "Li'l Ole Men" by the coaching staff, will have 1954 starter Elwood Kettler at quarterback, the fellow who "can't pass" but still led the Southwest conference in total offense last year.

Sophs Bobby Conrad and Jimmy Wright, whom Bryant says have more natural ability than Kettler, will call plays for the Whites, along with freshman Luther Hall, a February enrollee.

Students Get Sport Variety AT A&M

A&M students don't have to be an all-American to take an active part in athletics here.

While the major sports get most of the spotlight, Aggies can take part in intramurals, fencing, wrestling, boxing, soccer, rifle, pistol, handball, softball, bowling, gymnastics and others.

About 95 per cent of Aggies participate in the intramural program, one of the largest in the world. The program offers flag football, softball, track, cross-country, swimming, handball, volleyball, golf, tennis, basketball, wrestling, ping pong, bowling and other sports.

The A&M fencing team is defending Southwest conference champion. The A&M soccer team won the International Soccer league last year, and the varsity rifle team took the 1954-55 SWC title, defeating Rice, TCU, Baylor, SMU and Texas.

Five Aggie boxers won regional Golden Gloves titles at Waco in January and three competed in the state tournament.

The handballers have beaten Rice and SMU and lost to Texas this year. A&M wrestlers won a fourth and two fifth places at the Pan-American games tryout in San Antonio against some of the best wrestlers in the country.

Pitcher Bob Purey of the Pittsburgh Pirates had a perfect fielding average in 1954. He handled 56 chances without an error to lead the National League hurlers in fielding.

Highschoolers To See Four Daytime Contests

In addition to the intrasquad football game tomorrow night, four other athletic contests are on tap for High School day sports fans.

The Aggie swimming team will take on the freshmen and ineligible in an intrasquad meet at 2 p.m. in P. L. Downs jr. natatorium.

Outstanding swimmers on the freshman and ineligible squad include Jose Merino, South American 100 meter freestyle champ; Jerry Mount, freestyle and backstroke and Dudley Godfrey, diver. All three are freshmen.

Tetsuo Okamoto, transfer student from Brazil, placed third in the 1952 Olympic games in Helsinki and is expected to pick up some firsts in Saturday's competition. Chuck Price, with Mount, is co-captain of the undefeated fish squad which has racked up six wins in dual meets.

For the varsity, Captain Don Horne heads a team which is considered an even bet for the Southwest conference swimming title which will be decided here next week. Team members who have looked good while the Aggies were winning five out of six dual meets include Dick Weick, Norman Ufer, Dick Hunkler, John Speich, Bruce Martin and Horne.

The University of Houston baseball team invades the Kyle field diamond for a 2 p.m. encounter with the Aggies, who lost their season opener to Sam Houston Wednesday by a 9-3 margin.

Slated to start for the Aggies are Dick Bleckner, shortstop; Joe Schero, third base; Billy Ross, right field; John Stockton, center field; captain Les Byrd, left field; John Hoyle, first base; Joe Boring, second base; and Jimmy Williams, catcher. Sophomore Dick Munday may start on the mound for the Aggies.

Stephen F. Austin furnishes the golf competition for the Aggies at 1 p.m. over the A&M course.

Mark Hanna Rolls High Game, Series

Mark Hanna bowled a high game of 225 and a high series of 585 last night at the regular weekly meet of the A&M Bowling club at the Memorial Student Center bowling alley.

The four-man Aggie team will be picked from a group which includes Tommy Cox, R. W. Briggs jr., Bill Franklin, Jerry Durbin, Marcellino Moreno and Gary Fletcher. Franklin and Briggs are returning lettermen.

Tennis competition for the Aggies also will be furnished by Stephen F. Austin. Jack Bessellieu heads an Aggie squad consisting of Don Dixon, Jake Harper, Frank Holbrook, Robert Kerr, Gene Kindard and Thurman Watson.

The golf and tennis teams will be opening season competition while the baseball squad will be competing in its second contest. The Aggie swimming team is nearing the end of its season while waiting for the conference meet next week.
