19 points to take individual honors for the second straight year. He won the 1,500 meters, setting a pool record, the 440-yard freestyle and was second in the 200-yard freestyle.
Weick scored 18 points, winning the 200-yard orthodox breaststroke, the individual medley and swimming on the medley relay team. Aggie Dick Hunkler had 17½ points, winning the 50-yard and 100-yard freestyles and swimming on the winning 400-yard freestyle relay.

Ufer set a pool record as he won the 100-yard backstroke in 1:03.1. The old record was 1:04, set in 1942.

points to second place Texas' 38. A&M was third with 33½ points, and with Gross and ailing broad-jumper Bobby Robison present might have beaten the Longhorns for second place.
Fritzie Connally, ace Aggie high jumper, skimmed over the bar at 6-3¼ to win the high jump easily. He cleared 6-4 in Austin earlier this season.
"Connally looks like the boy to win the high jump in the conference meet," said Anderson. "No one in the conference has beaten him yet."
The Cadets once again proved strongest in the weights. Lee Newman won the discus on a throw of 142-10. Herman Johnson was first in the shot with a heave of 52 feet and second in the discus. Tom Bonorden took second in the shot and fourth in the discus.

Saturday night, Ufer's win in the backstroke—by a hair over SMU's Dick Snelling—pulled the Cadets into a 68-68 tie with Texas. Hunkler's first and Don Horne's third in the 100-yard freestyle put the Aggies ahead 86-81, after Bill Bedford and Wally Penberthy were third and fourth in the 200-yard butterfly.

Grant's 76 yard kickoff return set up the second Red touchdown, Jack Pardee leaping over from the 2. Crow's conversion made it 13-14 at the half.
Kettler sneaked over from the 1 to put the Reds ahead after Garry Martin recovered a fumble on the White 15. Ewell converted and it was 20-14.
Early in the fourth period, Hall raced 22 yards to climax a 92 yard march and Taylor's conversion put the Whites ahead 21-20. Big gainer was Dendy's 66 yard run to the 25.
Crow recovered Taylor's fumble on the White 7 to set up the last Maroon score. Kettler got to the 2, then sneaked over and Crow converted to make it 27-21.
The Whites took the kickoff right back, scoring with about two minutes left after a 61 yard march. Hall scored from the 6 on the same trap play, blasting through about six tacklers. Taylor converted for the winning point.
