Nelson, O'Neal Tangle In Mound Duel Here

By RONNIE GREATHOUSE
Battalion Sports Staff

A mound duel between Jerry Nelson and TCU's Dick O'Neal appears on tap for the Aggies' Southwest conference opener at home today.

Tennis Team Plays U of H, Then UT, TCU

Aggie tennis players begin a busy week today taking on the University of Houston here at 2:30 p.m.

The Cadets meet Texas at Austin Thursday and end the week's activities against TCU here Saturday.

Mural Highlights

Dick Guthrie and Jim Moffitt paced A engineers to a high-scoring 17-14 victory over B armor yesterday in upperclassmen intramural softball.

Southpaw Joe Hardgrove spun a five-hitter to take credit for the win and preserve his perfect record. He now has a 2-0 mark.

Joe Schero blasted a homer in the eighth and Boring duplicated the feat in the ninth. The Aggies pounced on Owl hurlers for three runs on three walks, a double and a homer in the top of the ninth to wrap up the contest.

Ag Soccer Team Blanks Allen 8-0

Three players kicked a goal each in the first half, then the Aggie soccer team added five more in the second period to shut out Allen academy 8-0 here yesterday.

The game was originally set for last Saturday but postponed because of cold weather.

Yesterday Jacintho Iacovone scored the first goal, Roberto Il-darraz booted a short one and Jorge Hildago scored on a high shot to boost the Cadets into their early lead.

The Aggies will play the University of Houston in Houston next weekend.

Softball Team To Play Sam Houston

A&M softballers entertain dangerous Sam Houston State here tomorrow night in the season's first doubleheader.

The Aggies dropped their opening game 5-0 to the powerful Phillips 66 Oilers of McGregor here last Friday in extra innings.

Starting time for tomorrow night's twin bill is 7:15.

More than 25 candidates for the Cadet team are on the roster at present, said Barney Welch, team manager. The club will play about 18 or 20 games during the season.

Starting lineup for tomorrow night's game includes Sonny Jameson, first base; Dick O'Connor, second base; Buddy Smith, third base; Harvey Helms, shortstop; Pappy Papacek, left field; Bill Thomas, center field; Buddy Denton, right field and Bill Bates, catcher.

Starting twirlers for the Aggies are Giles Schanen and Winfield Imel.

The Aggies battled Phillips to a scoreless tie during the regular seven innings, but bowed to the no-hit pitching of Clayton Dugger, as the Oilers pushed across five runs in the ninth.

A transportation corps won over A engineers in freshmen softball, 8-6; squadron 17 beat A anti-aircraft artillery, 16-11; A chemical corps defeated squadron 16, 14-13; squadron 18 downed B anti-aircraft artillery, 6-3; C armor won over B engineers, 5-3; and Hart hall beat Mitchell hall, 7-6.

Squadron 10 won over squadron 2, 2-0, in upperclassmen volleyball; B field artillery defeated A armor, 2-0; A field artillery beat D infantry, 2-0; B infantry downed squadron 6, 2-0; squadron 5 sank A infantry, 2-0; and maroon band beat squadron 3, 2-1.

Loeffler Traveling With All-Stars

Ken Loeffler, A&M's new basketball coach, will make two appearances in Texas before making his first visit here since the announcement of his new post.

The 53-year-old Loeffler is one of the college coaches helping De-Paul mentor Ray Meyer with the college all-stars, currently touring the country with the Harlem Globetrotters. The collegians play the Trotters in Waco April 10 and Houston April 11.

Loeffler is due to come here from Houston Tuesday, April 12. His contract at LaSalle doesn't expire until June, and he will continue teaching law there until then.

After that, he is due to tour South America with a team of college players, leaving June 26.
