

Cadets Figure To Place in Five Events at Relays

By JERRY WIZIG
Battalion Sports Editor

Some good showing in the field and distance events, but, barring an upset, no first places—that's the Aggie outlook for this weekend's Texas Relays in Austin.

Best chance for an A&M victory is in the shot put, where Herman Johnson and Tom Bonorden figure for a 2-3 finish between them. But track coach Frank Anderson yesterday pointed to the four-mile relay as an event in which the Cadets also may finish in the money, say third or fourth.

Bill Cocke, Bob Boles, John Whitwell and Verlon Westmoreland will run it.

The discus, pole vault and high jump are other spots where A&M figures to score. Kansas and Oklahoma A&M are favored to battle for first, with the University of Texas third.

"There isn't a first place slated over there for us," Anderson said yesterday, just before persuading footballer Jack Pardee to come out for track. "Our best chance to place is in the four mile relay, but I think Johnson and Bonorden have a good chance in the shot put for second and third, or third and fourth."

Pardee and Gene Henderson, another football player, were throwing the javelin, a weak spot for the Cadets this year, when Anderson spotted them. He watched while Pardee reached about 171 feet on one toss, farther than any A&M mark in competition this year, in street clothes, then invited him out for the team.

When last seen, the two were headed to the locker room to get Pardee a track uniform.

Kansas' Bill Neider has reached 53-10 1/2 in the shot, while Johnson has tossed 53-1 in practice. Bobby Gross, who won the event last year with 52-8 3/4 for the fifth straight Aggie win in the event, is recuperating from an operation on his knee.

Pole vaulter Winton Thomas, a 6-4 sophomore who pushed Rice's Stephen James to 13-11 here, better than the Southwest conference mark, is another of the Aggies rated a good chance to finish high.

Anderson said he didn't know how much Thomas might improve by his senior year. "I've been wrong too many times before to predict, but I'd be tickled to death with a 15 foot jump some day," he said with a smile.

In addition to James, however,

Thomas will face the nation's best 1954 vaulter, Earl Poucher of Florida. Poucher cleared 14-7 1/4. Jim Graham and Joe Springer of Notre Dame, both of whom have bettered 14 feet, also are due to enter.

Fritzie Connally, rounding into shape again after missing several practice days with a sprained ankle, carries Aggies hopes (See TRACK, Page 4)
