FAMILY FAVORITES

By Mrs. Fred Ablon
(Ed. note: Mrs. Ablon was the Family Favorites guest writer last week. She prepared a meal of pot roast with celery, onions and potatoes, peas and mushrooms, and iced tea. Her salads and desserts were not included in last week's column and are being published today. Mrs. Suzie Ablon is married to Fred Ablon, a senior business administration major.)

LETTUCE AND TOMATO SALAD WITH AVOCADO DRESSING

The salad I serve with this meal is called a lettuce and tomato salad with avocado dressing. I use a lettuce leaf and two slices of tomatoes for each person. Place the tomato slices on the lettuce leaf and put the following dressing over them.

Take one large avocado, peel it and mash it with a fork. Add 2 tablespoons mayonnaise and the juice from one-half lemon. Mix and add one-quarter chopped onion and garlic. Salt to taste with plain salt. Mix together in a bowl and serve on tomatoes.

BANANA PUDDING PIE

2 boxes of Jello instant vanilla pudding
Box of vanilla wafers
2 bananas
Follow directions on Jello boxes, being sure to add 1 teaspoon of vanilla. Line bottom of square pan with vanilla wafers in rows. Place thinly sliced bananas on top of vanilla wafers in more rows.

CHOCOLATE ICE BOX PIE

Crust:
1 1/3 cup of sifted flour
1 teaspoon of salt
1/3 cup of Wesson oil
3 1/2 tablespoons of milk
Sift together flour and salt. Combine Wesson oil and milk. Mix together all ingredients until doughy. Place dough on a floured board and roll out. Place rolled-out dough in an eight inch pie pan and bake in oven at 475 degrees for eight to ten minutes.

Prepare one box of jello chocolate flavored pudding. Pour two cups cold milk in a mixing bowl. Add contents of package and beat with an egg for about one minute. Let mixture stand until it sets. Pour into the baked crust and put in the ice box. Let pie chill before serving.

When you are ready to serve, slice and put whipped cream on top of each piece. It's always a winner.

Newcomers Show Set For Later Date

The Newcomers style show and luncheon has been rescheduled to April 20 instead of the original date of April 6, according to Mrs. John P. Barlow publicity chairman.

The Newcomers next meeting will be Wednesday, April 6, at the home of Mrs. George Huebner, 1010 Walton. The meeting will be a bridge and canasta party.

Hostesses of the last bridge party were Mesdames Henry Rakoff, A. Steve Gillbert, Ralph Zingaro and T. S. Berkhalter. Mrs. Jerry Claiborne won the traveling prize, Mrs. Gillbert the high and Mrs. Berkhalter the second high. Mrs. John Freeman was low and Mrs. Maurice Halstead won the beginners prize.

The last meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Clark Allen, 1210 Walton drive. Cookies and soft drinks were served.

Church Council To Meet Thursday

The College Station Council of Church Women heard Mrs. R. E. Miller talk on state projects and migrant work at their meeting today at 9:30 a.m. at the A&M Presbyterian church.

Mrs. J. H. Bass, president of the council, gave a short report on the state meeting in Waco, which she attended recently, and Mrs. Robert Monk led the devotional.
