

Over 100 High School Golfers Compete In Third Annual A&M Invitational Meet

More than 100 players and 20 teams make up entries in the third annual A&M Invitational High School Golf tourney here Friday and Saturday.

Admission is free, and everyone is invited.

The young golfers are the best in the state, and will play a 54 hole medal play tournament. Thirty-six holes will be played Friday and 18

Saturday.

A&M's five-year-old 6,700 yard course is in good shape for the tournament and some fine scores are expected to be turned in. The course par is 70.

Trophies will be given to teams and individuals who place first in each interscholastic league class.

Frank Horton of Dallas won last year's individual trophy for the low score of the tourney. Richard Parvino of Pine Tree won the first individual trophy in 1953.

Entry fee for the tournament is $10, and covers housing and meals.

"The players are the best in Texas", said Joe Fagan, pro-manager of the golf course and coach of A&M's golf team, "and the competition is expected to be keen as it has been the past two years".

Among the high schools entered are Jeff Davis of Houston, Robert E. Lee of Baytown, North Dallas, San Antonio Military academy, Abilene, Stephen F. Austin of

Houston, Bishop Byrne of Port Arthur, Brownwood, Crockett and Del Rio;

Highland Park of Dallas, Marlin, Newman of Sweetwater, Pine Tree of Gregtown, San Angelo, Reagan of Houston, Seguin, South Park of Beaumont and Jacksonville.

MELLO CREAM
"A Nutritious Food"

The bell rings, and its message is a clarion call across the countryside. Beneath it, white lillies touched by the sunlight look upward toward a cloudless sky.

This is Easter... the golden day... the day of promise and joy. This is the time when God proffers the great gift of eternal life... when he shows, in the lesson of the Tomb... that there is no death.

There is no more joyous occasion in the Church than Easter. Against the setting of Spring, it touches the land with beauty, bringing a new upsurge of hope, thrilling the young, comforting the old. Easter is the time to rededicate your faith... to listen again to a wonderful promise... to receive again a glorious gift. Start attending Church regularly by beginning at Easter.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church: (1) For his own sake; (2) For his children's sake; (3) For the sake of his community and nation; (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
