No Date Set For Run-Offs

Election Filings Open Until April 20

Filings for the general election April 27 will remain open until April 20.

Positions to be elected include those not chosen in the class elections Tuesday.

Positions in the general election and the qualifications for each are as follows:

Student Senate — 15 from the class of '56; 10 from the class of '57; 6 from the class of '58; one from each civilian dormitory; one from College View; 2 from the day students.

Qualifications for senator are a 1.0 grade point ratio and attendance at A&M for the two previous semesters. The senators, including those from the civilian dormitories, may be either corps or civilian students.

Student Publications board — one student from the class of '56 from the corps, and one civilian student from the class of '56. Qualifications are a 1.5 grade point ratio.

Civilian Student Life committee members — three civilian students who are at least sophomores and have attended A&M for the two previous semesters. They must have a 1.0 grade ratio.

Civilian yell leader — any civilian student who is either a junior or senior at the time of election and who has a 1.25 grade ratio.

Civilian Council Meets Tonight

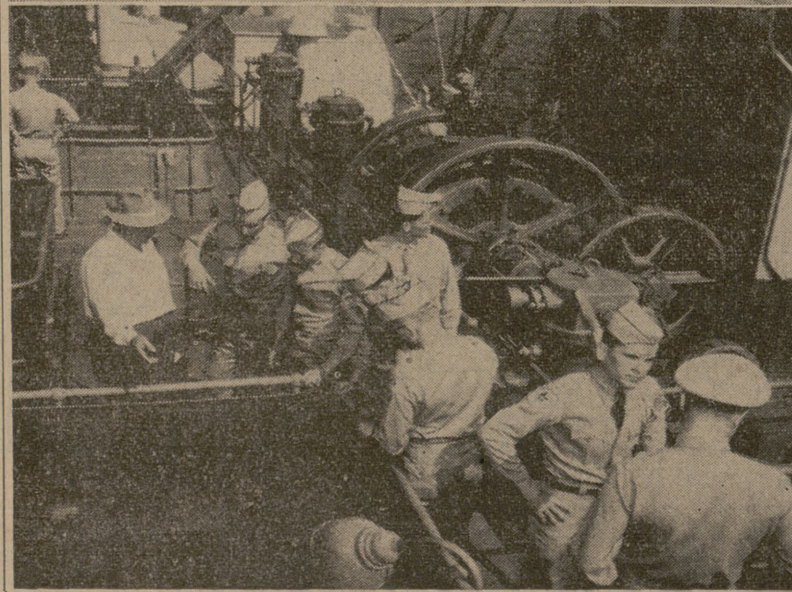

The Civilian Student Council will meet tonight, with a report on the plans of Civilian Student weekend as the main order of business.

Other agenda items are reports from the mess hall, banquet, stationery and book room committees.

The meeting will be at 7:15 p.m. in room 2A of the Memorial Student Center.

Debate Team Wins

A&M was judged the best affirmative debate team in the South-west conference meet held here, Baylor university, arguing the negative side of the question, was awarded first place.

DREDGE IN THE BAY—The A&M chapter of the Society of American Military Engineers held its March meeting on a hopper dredge in Galveston bay. Shown here in a group picture on the dredge (above) and inspecting the hopper (below), the students were the guests of Col. W. P. McCrone, district engineer. They were given a tour of the Galveston port and the ship, which was working at the inner bar of the port. Accompanying the 57 students were Maj. Robert Willets and Maj. H. O. Johnson, both military instructors here.

Three Winners Picked Tuesday

Last Tuesday's class elections produced a class agent, two MSC council members, and a set of run-off candidates for the class of '58 class officers, but no date has been set yet for the run-off election.

The run-off will not be held April 13, as originally scheduled, said W. D. (Pete) Hardesty, business manager of student activities.

The date of the run-off will be announced after the Student Senate decides what to do about the class of '56 and '57 elections.

These two elections, scheduled to be held last Tuesday, were postponed by the Election commission because the army juniors in both classes had held primaries to determine a "slate" of candidates.

The Student Senate, which is scheduled to meet April 21, must decide when to have the elections and what to do about primaries. There is nothing in the college regulations about primaries now.

The class of '58 run-off will probably be held when the elections for the other two classes are held.

In Tuesday's election, F. E. (Sonny) Tutt won as class agent for the class of '55.

Named MSC council members were Ernest Kennedy, in the more than four semesters division, and Don McGinty, in the less than four semesters division.

There will have to be a run-off for all seven classes of '58 officers.

Run-off candidates are as follows:

President: Charles A. Sides, A. G. Newby, Jamey Saunders.

Vice-president: J. W. Ellington, Donald P. Jones, Sun Oil Company, Dallas.

Recording secretary: Bob Surovik, Robert R. Wunderlich.

Social secretary: William E. McLaughlin, Ray Bowen.

Treasurer: Robert S. Martin, Jerry P. Bent, George M. Ragsdale.

Parliamentarian: Donald B. Kirby, Joe A. Blieden.

Sergeant-at-arms: Ben E. Dunn, David Graham.

(For those who missed last Wednesday's paper because of the holidays, this issue of The Battalion contains on page 2 a complete list of the election results, with all candidates and the number of votes they received.)

Reserve Board Pick Timm As Director

Tyrus R. Timm, head of the agricultural economics and sociology department, has been named to the board of directors of the Houston branch of the Federal Reserve system.

He will fill the unexpired portion of a three-year term ending Dec. 31, 1955.

C. N. Shepardson, who was dean of agriculture here, recently vacated a post on the Houston board to take a post on the national Federal Reserve board.

Investment Group Elects S. A. Lynch

S. A. Lynch, consulting geologist and head of the geology department here, has been elected vice-president of the American General Investment corporation.

He will serve as vice-president in charge of the company's exploration program in Central America.

The company has recently become active in Central America, with options on exploration rights to uranium, sulphur, oil, cinnabar, and other minerals in Guatemala and Honduras.

District Boy Scouts To Hold Camporee

The Arrowmoon District Boy Scouts will hold a camporee April 15-16 in Hensel park, one-half mile north of the circle in College Station.

Troops will arrive after school April 15 in time to set up tents and prepare supper before the giant camp fire at 8:15 p. m.

Water will be available but each unit should bring its own containers.

News of the World

By the Associated Press

NEW YORK—Adlai Stevenson said in a radio speech last night that he has "grave misgivings" about risking a third world war in defense of Quemoy and Matsu, the Nationalist-held islands off the Red China coast. The Democratic party leader said most of the public opinion in Asia would be against the U. S. in the event of outbreak of hostilities over the islands.

WASHINGTON—President Eisenhower announced yesterday that he will submit to Congress next week a foreign aid program that would include economic aid to the free nations of south and east Asia. Indications are that the president will ask for a program of about three-and-a-half billion dollars, with about two-thirds of it earmarked for Asia.

AUSTIN—The Texas house went into its first night session last night over the big tax bill that would raise gasoline and cigarette taxes and increase beer and wine license fees. The bill failed.

ROCKDALE—A 60-year-old man and a 7-year-old boy drowned yesterday in the rain-swollen Little river near Rockdale. The man, A. A. Haney, and the boy, Chester Kilpper, were on a fishing expedition.

WASHINGTON—Secretary of State Dulles last night said that world peace—under certain conditions—could lead to a "degradation of the human race. He went on to say that Communism could easily conquer the world if pacifism becomes a prevalent mood among free peoples, and warned against bargaining with Communism.

AMARILLO—A new dust storm is rolling into West Texas, riding on a cold front that is expected to drop temperatures in North Texas. South Texas had some temperatures in the 90's yesterday, and other parts of the state had highs in the upper 70's and 80's.

NEW YORK—Warner Brothers Pictures, Inc., and the American Broadcasting company yesterday announced plans for 39 hour-long television movies to be made in Hollywood. The weekly programs will start next September.

Allee Same: Architecture, Biology

A man who is at home with both biology and art will give two widely-varied talks here this week.

The man is Dr. C. M. Pomerat, a professor of cytology at the University of Texas medical branch in Galveston.

He will give a graduate lecture at 8 p.m. tonight in the Biological Sciences building on "Recent Advances in the Study of Living Cells."

Then at 11 a.m. tomorrow, he will talk on his hobby, art and architecture, in room 113 of the Biological Sciences building. This talk will be titled "History of the Renaissance."

Pomerat has traveled in Spain, Italy, and France making paintings and photographs in connection with his hobby. Some of these are now on display in the architecture department library.

Berry Awarded Purina Fellowship

William T. Berry jr., graduate animal husbandry student, has been selected to receive one of 10 Ralston Purina fellowships for graduate study during the 1955-56 school year.

The fellowship amounts to $1,500, and is awarded on a basis of undergraduate records and stated objectives in agricultural research.

John D. Williams, senior poultry student, was chosen as one of seven alternates for the fellowships.

Competition was open to agriculture students in colleges throughout the United States and Canada, and this year's field of applicants was the largest in the last five years of the program, the company said.

SPRING FOR GOOD?—After a series of false alarms, Miss Toni Best of Snyder checks the tree blossoms to see if spring is really here to stay. And if another norther should come through suddenly and catch Toni in that costume, she'll freeze to death before she can get inside.
