Potts Named Foods Group New President

Mrs. W. M. Potts was elected president of the foods group of the A&M Social club for the coming year, during the business meeting of the meeting and luncheon Friday.

Other officers elected are Mrs. Raymond Rogers, program chairman; Mrs. C. M. Taylor, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. John Ashton, reporter; and Mrs. Eddie Wagoner, membership chairman.

New England was the theme of the monthly luncheon which was held in the A&M Presbyterian church.

The New England food specialties that were served to the members were potato chips, rolls, pickled beets, Boston cream pie and coffee and the featured dish, lobster salad.

The main table was decorated with the New England countryside atmosphere. A bean pot, copper tea kettle and coffee grinder were placed on the table which was also centered with a large copper bowl filled with seasonal flowers. An old fashion butter churn stood in front of the main table. Individual tables were decorated with heavy black iron skillets and ivy plants. Green napkins were placed by each plate and guests were given small name tags resembling green leaves as they came in the door.

Hostesses for the day were Mrs. Rogers and Mrs. Wagoner, co-chairmen; Mesdames Don Young, Charles Workman, H. T. Blackhurst, Lambert Wilkes, Silvio Navarro, Gordon Hill, and Flake Fisher.

 Third baseman Joe Schero took over the team batting leadership from captain Les Byrd. Schero hit 5 for 11 in the Texas series—4 for 5 in the first game—to hike his average from .319 to .345. Byrd dropped from .333 to .304.
 Sophomore shortstop Dick Bleckner went 5 for 10 in the series to rocket his average 61 points to .277. Catcher Jimmy Williams had 4 for 9 and a 45 point boost to .231.
 The Aggies lost a chance to win the second UT game in the bottom of the ninth, when an attempted squeeze play turned into a double play. Texas had gone ahead 2-2 in the top of the ninth on Steele McKinney's run-scoring infield hit. John Hoyle squeezed in Williams from third to tie the score with one out. Munday then popped a bunt, shortstop John Lowry threw out Bleckner at home, and catcher Stuart Benson doubled Munday at first.
 Jerry Nelson, taking over from Munday after the first batter singled in the 10th, was touched for six hits and five runs in the 13th.
 The Aggies finally kayoted starter Tommy Jungman in a last-ditch rally in the bottom of the frame. Byrd homered over the left field fence at the foul line with John Stockton on base, sending Jungman to the bench.
 Schero and Williams singled off reliever Ronald Keller before Bleckner bounded into a fielder's choice. Joe Boring singled to score Schero, knock out Keller and bring in Oren Buckallew. Clyde Stinson's ground-out put Bleckner at third and Boring at second with the tying run, but Nelson struck out to end the game.
 Friday, the Aggies routed two Steer pitchers in two innings for a 7-0 lead and went on to their most lopsided win over Texas in years.
