

Ags Play SMU Today

Hardgrove Faces Bowers In Opener

One of the tightest pitching duels of the season is due here today when the conference's two leading hurlers face each other in the first of a two-game series between A&M and SMU.

Game time is 3 p.m. at Kyle field. Tomorrow's contest begins at 2.

Rubber-armed lefty Joe Hardgrove meets SMU's crack right-hander, Tommy Bowers, in the first encounter between the two pitchers in conference play.

Hardgrove sports a perfect 5-0 slate, while Bowers leads the league with a 6-0 mark. Hardgrove has started and finished all his games, while Bowers had to have aid in only one.

In 53 innings of pitching, Hardgrove has given up 29 hits, 22 walks and has 43 strike outs. He has allowed only eight earned runs and has a 1.3 earned run average.

Bowers has twirled 45 frames in conference play, giving up 25 hits, 23 free passes and has fanned 44 batters. Eleven runs have been charged to him, and he holds a 1.64 earned run average.

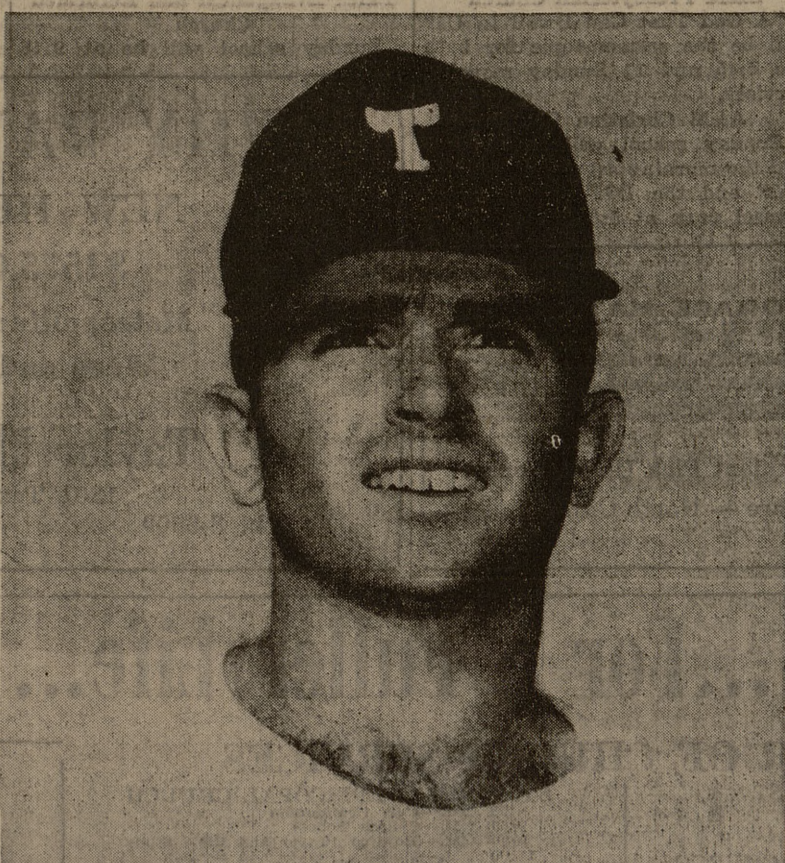

Big Jerry Nelson will take the mound for A&M tomorrow, against the Mustangs' Ernie Proud. Nelson brings a 1-1 conference record into Saturday's game. Proud comes into the contest with a 2-0 ledger.

The Aggies will be out to duplicate a feat here two years ago when they knocked Bowers out of the box in a 14-6 win over the Ponies. The loss caused SMU to fall short of the undisputed conference championship, and wind up in a tie with Texas.

A sweep of the two games for SMU would mean an almost certain conference crown, while a split would help SMU more than the Aggies.

The Mustangs rank first in the conference with an 8-0 record. A&M is 2½ games back with 5-2. A&M has another crack at SMU, if the game would alter the outcome of the championship.

Bowers also leads SMU hitters with a .412 average in conference action. He has six hits in 14 times at bat. First baseman Jim Payne is next in line with a healthy .357

AGGIE RIGHTFIELDER—Fred Ablon, with a .293 season batting average and a .353 conference mark, one of the best in the SWC, starts in right field today for the Cadets in the SMU opener.

JC Meet Here Monday

The state junior college track, golf and tennis meet starts here at 8 a.m. Monday, with first round golf and tennis matches.

No admission will be charged.

Track and field prelims start at 3:30 p.m. Monday at Kyle field and finals begin at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday.

Barlow Irvin, athletic department administrative assistant, will direct the overall meet. Golf coach Joe Fagan and tennis coach W. M. Dowell will handle those meets.

Hurdlers Rate Top First Place Chance

Hurdlers James Hollingsworth and Harley Hartung got Coach Frank Anderson's vote yesterday as the Aggies most likely to succeed at Saturday night's quadrangular track meet in Dallas with Southern California, SMU and University of Texas.

Hollingsworth turned in a 14 flat in the highs with a favorable wind in the Texas-Rice triangular here, best in the nation. Hartung's 23.3 in the lows, also with an aiding wind, is one of the best recorded in the nation.

"They are our best chances for first places," Anderson said. "We ought to pick up a good many thirds and fourths—possibly some seconds—in the field events, but Texas and Southern Cal should win the running events.

"We should place in all the field events except the javelin, and may win fourth there. USC should win the meet, because they'll beat us in the track and Texas in the field events."

Anderson will enter this Aggie squad:

Don Watson and Carol Goyer, sprints; Bill Holloway and John Roberts, 440; Hollingsworth and Hartung, low and high hurdles; Verlon Westmoreland and Carl Wilmsen, mile;

Bill Cocke and Fidel Rul, two mile; Roberts, Bob McKnight, Wally Kleb and Holloway, mile relay; Hartung, Watson, Holloway, and Goyer, 440 relay;

Tom Bonorden, Herman Johnson and Harry Cox, shot; Lee Newman, Bonorden and Johnson, discus; Gene Henderson and Joe Schiraldi, javelin; Winton Thomas, James Clark and James Jackson, pole vault; Fritzie Connally and Schiraldi, high jump;

Bobby Robison and Dale Elmore, broad jump.
