"The Three Graces"

Dance Group Plans Program of Ballet

"Ballet Fantasy", a program of ballet, will be presented by Frances Putnam of Houston, Saturday, at 8 p.m. in the Stephen F. Austin high school auditorium.
 Mrs. Ruth Gordon McGill of Bryan will be one of the principal dancers in the program. Roland Guerard, ballet master, will also be in the program.
 Guerard, teacher of the Bryan branch of Frances Putnam studios, did the choreography and designed costumes for the numbers. He was one of the original members of the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo from its inception in 1932 and remained with that company as premier danseur until 1943. In 1943 he served as the executive secretary of the ballet division of the American Guild of Musical Artists. He also gave ballet lessons to Walter Davis, A&M's outstanding high jumper of 1951-52.

 "Ballet Fantasy" will open and close with two short ballets. A series of short dances, "Selections in Divertissement", will comprise the middle portion of the program.
 The opening number, "Ballet Royal," will feature Guerard and Mrs. McGill as the royal prince and princess. In place of the usual preliminary music to the evening's performance, there will be a procession of royalty, the king and queen and the children and their tutor, who will take their places in the back of the stage and before whom the ballet, a command performance, will be given.
 Theme of the production is the courties and symbols of royalty. Music will consist of selections from Handel's "Water Music." Mrs. McGill will also appear in one of the short numbers in the middle of the program, "Romance", to the music of a Chopin waltz.
Folk Dancing
 Other dances in this portion of the program will be a folk dance and pas de trois of the mosaic of the three graces. The program will close with a short ballet based upon Grimm's household tale "Snow White and Rose Red," danced to Hayden's "Surprise Symphony." All music used on the program has been recorded and supervised by the Audio Corporation of America.

Two Aggies Picked All-State Choir Members

Two members of the A&M Baptist Student union have been chosen to be members of the All-State BSU choir which will tour Texas and New Mexico this summer, Wes Forbes, choir director announced.

Bob Burtis, freshman chemical engineering major from Waco, and Jim Brady, freshman aeronautical engineering major from Austin, are the two BSU'ers who will tour with the choir in sixteen cities. Choir members were selected from the colleges and universities of Texas.
 Included in the tour will be three days at Gloriaeta Baptist assembly near Santa Fe, N.M. The trip will be Aug. 16 through Sept. 4.
 Burtis and Brady sang with the 100-voice choir for the first time at the State BSU Spring Planning conference held at Latham Springs, April 22-24. They were then chosen as members of the 60-voice traveling choir for the tour.
