

Regional Lutheran Students Attend Annual Ashram

The Gulf Region Lutheran Student association held its annual spring Ashram April 22-24 at Round Rock.

About 45 students representing Texas Christian university, Southern Methodist university, Texas Lutheran college, University of Houston, Rice and A&M attended.

The program consisted of lectures given by Pastor Kurt Hartman, who talked on "Man's True Life," Dr. A. G. Wiederaenders of Texas Lutheran, who spoke on "The Nature of the Christian Society," and L. J. Tolle of A&M, who spoke on "The Christian Responsibility in a Society."

Glen Specht of A&M, who is the past president of the region, was responsible for the Ashram's success. Other students from A&M who attended the Ashram were Elmer Jacobs, Bernard Halverson, John Ochterbeck, Robert Goerdel, Theo Lindig, David Behlen and Alan Soefje.

FAMILY FAVORITES

By Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Campbell
(Ed note: This week's Family Favorites are written by a husband and wife team, Tom and Margaret Campbell. Mrs. Campbell prepares the relish dish, bread, beans, and refreshments for this outdoor meal but her husband cooks the barbecue and makes the sauce.)

MENU SALAD

Carrot Sticks

Scrape carrots, slice into four lengthwise sections and place in cool water until ready to serve.

Celery

Cut into strips, place in cool water as you have carrots or fill with cheese mixture.

Green Onions

Leave some of the long green sprouts on the onion to make an attractive arrangement on the relish dish.

Dill Pickles

Slice lengthwise quarters or leave them whole, to be eaten with the fingers.

CASSEROLE OF BAKED BEANS

New England style baked beans, 3 quarts
2 teaspoons dry mustard
1/4 cup pineapple syrup

8 half slices pineapple
8 half strips of partially cooked bacon

Fill a three quart casserole with canned New England style baked beans (without tomato sauce). Dissolve two teaspoons dry mustard in 1/4 cup pineapple syrup and pour over the beans. Mix slightly. Arrange over beans, eight half slices pineapple and eight strips of partially cooked bacon. Bake about 40 minutes at 350 degrees.

FAMOUS TEXAS BARBECUE SAUCE

2 cup water
1/2 teaspoon black pepper
4 tablespoons brown sugar
1 teaspoon garlic salt
2 teaspoons salt

1 cup cider vinegar
1 bottle of worchestershire sauce
Juice of 4 lemons
4 tablespoons butter

Bring water to boil, add pepper, simmer five minutes. Add brown sugar, and stir mixture until dissolved. Add garlic salt, salt, vinegar, and stir. Add one-half of worchestershire, simmer for a few minutes, add lemon juice and stir. Add rest of worchestershire and butter as sauce heats. Makes one quart.

BARBECUED STEAK OR CHICKEN

Choose chicken or steak to suit the number of people you will serve. Use charcoal with hickory chips to barbecue the meat. Meat should be turned and basted frequently with the Famous Texas Barbecue Sauce until done.

Rolls that have been warmed and amply spread with melted butter and iced coffee or tea complete the menu.

DESERT

Red meated watermelon seems to complete this outdoor meal.

Hardgrove To Pitch

McDaniel has worked the most innings for TCU, 45 1/2, and leads in strikeouts with 27. He has completed only two games in loop play. O'Neal has pitched in two games, giving up five runs and nine hits.

Hill has hurled 37 innings, allowed 21 runs and has a 0-3 record. Les Mattinson is the leading Frog batter with a .325 average against league pitching. Jim Mayfield is second with .317. Mattinson also leads in total bases with 22, doubles with three, homers with two and runs-batted-in with seven.

Nelson's 11-inning three-hitter against SMU last Saturday gave the Aggies another strong starter, and could mean the return to form that helped him gain all-conference recognition in his sophomore season.

He holds a 3-2 margin over TCU in two years. In Nelson's sophomore year he gave the Frogs only six hits in the two wins he posted over them. This year he bested TCU here, allowing five earned runs.

Today's starting lineups are:

TCU	A&M
Paschal, ss	Ablon, rf
Quick, 2b	Stockton, cf
Mattinson, lf	Byrd, lf
Mayfield, 1b	Schero, 3b
White, cf	Williams, c
Roseborough, c	Borling, ss
Holland, 3b	Puls, 2b
Rogers, rf	Boyle, 1b
McDaniel, p	Hardgrove, p

'Mural Highlights

Bruce Terry gave up only one hit and fanned 15 to move C anti-aircraft artillery past A transportation, 1-0, in the upperclassmen softball quarterfinals last night.

Terry got in trouble only once, in the sixth, when he walked, Bob Egger with one out and gave up a single between short and third to Neal Nampkin, moving Egger to third. Nampkin took second on leftfielder John Sullivan's throw to third, but Terry struck out clean-up hitter Fred Galley, and got Don Weber on a pop to third-baseman Red Simms.

The only run came with two out in the bottom of the third. Bobby Woodward singled past third, and Ben Alcala moved him to third on a perfect hit-and-run play, driving a single into right behind the runner. Woodward scored when right fielder Jerry McKinney overthrew third.

Alcala ended the inning trying to come home on a dropped third strike by catcher Jerome Lednicki.

Squadron 12 advanced in the freshmen semifinals with a crushing 15-5 victory over A infantry. The game was called with the air force 10 runs ahead in the fourth.

Campus Study Club Installs New Leaders

The Annual garden party and installation of officers of the Campus Study club was held on the lawn of Mrs. E. R. Alexander's home, 1119 Ashburn, Tuesday from 3 to 5 p.m.

Mrs. Emmette Wallace, registered parliamentarian, installed the new officers and commended the outgoing officers on their year's work.

Following the welcome address by Mrs. R. N. Craig, 1954-55 president, Charles Patraccia, junior high student, presented a program of accordian music.

Mrs. Wallace gave special recognition to the life members of the club who were present at the installation. They were Mrs. C. W. Crawford, Mrs. E. P. Humbert, Mrs. Ida Kernodle, Mrs. J. S. Mogford and Mrs. T. O. Walton.

Retiring Officers
Retiring officers are Mrs. Craig; president; Mrs. Price Hobgood, vice-president; Miss Genevieve DeWerth, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert F. Smith, corresponding secretary; Mrs. P. T. Montfort, treasurer; Mrs. George L. Huebner jr., reporter; Mrs. R. M. Sherwood, historian; Mrs. E. B. Reynolds, auditor; and Mrs. Carl M. Lyman, parliamentarian.

New Officers

New officers were installed and Mrs. Wallace gave each new officer instructions for her respective office. New officers are Miss Jennie Oliver, president; Mrs. Huebner, vice-president; Mrs. Morris J. Garber, recording secretary; Mrs. Glen D. Hallmark, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Sherwood, historian; Mrs. Montfort, auditor; and Mrs. Craig, parliamentarian.

Special guests of the afternoon were those people who had presented programs to the club throughout the 1954-55 year.
