

Miss Susie Thigpen
Youngest dancer in dance revue

'Come On Down South' Dance Revue Theme

"Come On Down South" will be the theme of the annual dance recital of the Carolyn's School of Dance and the Wee Aggeland kindergarten Saturday at 7:30 p.m. in the A&M Consolidated auditorium.

The revue is under the direction of Mrs. H. S. Thigpen and will include acrobatic, tap and ballet numbers by her pupils. Costumes and music of the production are typical of the old South, Mrs. Thigpen explained. Mrs. Robert Smith Jr. helped Mrs. Thigpen with the designing of the dance costumes.

The program will be divided into three parts—the first and third "Come On Down South" and "Cotton Town Capers" will be put on by the dance school, and the second, "Come to The Mardi Gras," will be given by the members of the Wee Aggeland kindergarten. The second part will include the Mardi Gras king and queen, maids of the court, "can-can cuties" and "hula honeys." There will also be Indian boys and girls and clowns.

C. K. Esten, director of the Aggie Players, is supervising the staging of the show and Mrs. Chuck Moore and Mrs. Smith will be accompanists.

Soloists and their song selections for the program will be Miss Jean Adams, "Lindy Lou" and "Your Land and My Land;" Betty Ivy, "While Strolling Through the Park One Day;" Bill J. Newcomb, "Shoe Shine Boy;" and Bob Frazier, "Harvest Moon."

Those pupils taking part in the program will be Claire Rogers, Eugenia Rush, Rita Hughes, Mary Lou Ergle, Bieci Luther, Lorrie Woods, Cindy Hartman, Dianne Dulaney, Sandra Ann Sayers, Judy Mills, Nancy Beamer, Gwen Mountney, Susan Schember, Margaret Durst.

Toudoze Named Newman Club's New President

Tommy Toudoze, senior geology major from San Antonio, was elected as the new president of the Newman club at the club's last meeting.

Other officers elected were Tony Bolner, junior business administration major from San Antonio, vice-president; Louie Benavides, sophomore chemistry major from San Antonio, secretary; Harry McBrierty, freshman engineering major from Ennis, treasurer; Carl Britton, corresponding secretary.

Webb Connelly, junior poultry major from Austin, Cadance editor; Rudy Rodriguez, freshman general major from Houston, reporter; and Richard Dilts, junior mechanical engineering major from Ohio, historian.

Awards were given to members for outstanding work done during the year which contributed to the betterment of the club. Those receiving awards were Jimmy Wendland, Chuck Franz, Toudoze, Jimmy Wheeler, Kurt Nauck, Benavides, John McIlhenny and Bolner.

During the meeting it was announced that the club will have a barbecue for all Newmanites and their dates May 18 at the St. Mary's Student center. This will be the club's last social event for this school year.

Theriot's Son

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney J. Theriot have announced the birth of their first child, Timothy Michael Theriot. Timothy was born at 1:45 a.m. May 5 in St. Joseph's hospital and weighed 6 pounds and 12½ ounces at birth.

There will be no admission charge and the public is invited.

Future Homemakers Attend State Meeting

Three students of A&M Consolidated high school, their homemaking teacher and club sponsor attended the State Future Homemakers of America meeting of Texas in Galveston recently.

According to a report of the meeting prepared by Miss Dew, the students spent two and a half days of "fun, meeting new and old friends, and learning more about FHA". The theme of the meeting was "Peaceful Living—Peaceful Thinking". One evening of the meeting was devoted to entertainment in which each area of the state was responsible for a skit.

Miss Beaty was the voting delegate from the group at the meeting.

Social Whirl

Thursday
The American Veterinary Medical Association Student Wives auxiliary will meet at 8 p.m. in the social room of the Memorial Student Center.

Friday
The A&M Garden club will meet at 9:30 a.m. in the social room of the Memorial Student Center for the last meeting of the year and a coffee. Preceding the coffee there will be a tour of the greenhouse at 8:30 a.m.
