

FAMILY FAVORITES

By Mrs. Sadie Easley

(Ed note: Mrs. Easley is the wife of Bob Easley, a senior physical education major. The Easleys have a daughter, Becky, who is two, and live at A-1-C, College View. Houston is their home town.)

CHICKEN SPAGHETTI

1-2-3 lb. hen 1 large bell pepper (diced)
 2 pkgs. Kraft Dinner 1 teaspoon salt
 2 large cans pimento (diced) ½ teaspoon pepper

Place hen in pressure cooker, sprinkle with salt and pepper, add 2 cups of water. Pressure for 35 minutes. Remove from cooker and pull off meat, set aside. Boil macaroni from Kraft Dinner until tender, drain and add to chicken. Add bell pepper, pimento, salt, pepper, cheese from Kraft Dinner, and broth from chicken, mix well. Place in casserole and cook in oven about 350 degrees for about 45 minutes.

AVOCADO SALAD

1 onion (small) 1 head lettuce
 1 large avocado 1 c. American cheese (grated)
 3 medium tomatoes

Dice onion in salad bowl. Cut up avocado in small pieces, add diced tomatoes. Pull lettuce to pieces, add to other vegetables. Salt and pepper to taste. Toss well. Sprinkle cheese over top. I do not use a dressing, for the avocados make the salad sufficiently moist, but preferred, a favorite french dressing may be poured over the top.

FRENCH TOAST

2 half-baked French loaves Margerine
 Cut french loaves length-wise. Spread sufficiently with margerine and place in oven till brown.

BAÑANA ICE CREAM

2 cups sugar
 4 eggs
 2 cans evaporated milk (large)
 4 ripe bananas (mashed)
 1 half gallon milk

Place in large mixing bowl sugar and eggs, mix well. Add mashed bananas and canned milk, stir till mixed thoroughly. Pour into freezer container, and fill the container the remainder with homogenized milk. Place in freezer, use plenty of ice cream salt so as to make the ice cream hard. Makes one gallon ice cream.
