

Game of Week

Orioles Beat Senators

With the aid of some fine defensive work by left fielder Bill Berry and shortstop Les Palmer, the Student Co-op Orioles downed the Black's Pharmacy Senators 8 to 6 at Little League Park Monday evening.

Berry nipped a Senator rally in the last inning of the 6 inning game with three fine catches, the last a running, jumping stab of what looked like a game tying blast off the bat of Senator first baseman James Riggs.

The starting pitchers for both teams tied up in a scoreless duel for two innings, then the roof caved in. The Senators picked up two runs in their half of the third, when after pitcher Joe Olian had singled and center fielder Joe Fowler reached first on an error, shortstop Johnny Williams doubled both home.

In the bottom of the third, Oriole center fielder George Outlaw walked, third baseman Tommy Kerley singled, pitcher Larry Randolph reached first when his grounder was thrown to home to hold Outlaw at third, right fielder P. D. Gandy walked, Berry walked, catcher Russell Brown walked, Danny Garner walked, Palmer walked, and Outlaw singled. Seven runs had come in, and left fielder Calvin Schehin saved an eighth on Outlaw's hit when he threw out Palmer trying to score from second.

The Senators came back hard in the fourth, when after a walk, a fielder's choice, an error on another fielder's choice, and another walk, third baseman Sidney Coufal singled in one run and Olian singled in another. Two fly balls ended the threat without further damage.

The Orioles boosted their lead in their half of the fourth, with Garner doubling in Berry who had reached first on a fielder's choice.

The fifth inning was scoreless, although both teams were able to get runners on base.

Trailing 8 to 5 going into the last inning, the Senators opened as though they meant to catch up. Second baseman Jody Rush led off with a double to center. Coufal fled to left, then Berry raced over into foul territory to take down Olian's drive. With two outs, Fowler singled to right, driving in Rush; then Williams singled to left between the shortstop and third baseman. A good throw from Gandy kept the Senators from scoring when Schehin followed with another single to right.

With the bases loaded, two out, and a 3-2 count on the batter Riggs, Berry made his game saving catch of the drive into left center.

Winning pitcher was Larry Randolph who went all the way, giving up 11 hits and striking out two men. The Orioles made five errors.

Loser for the Senators was Olian, who pitched good ball as far as hits were concerned, but who could not find the plate. Armistead relieved in the third during the Oriole scoring spree, and Fowler relieved in the fifth. The Orioles managed only five hits off the three Senator pitchers, and the Senators made two errors.

For the Senators Williams and Riggs both had a double and a single, and Olian and Coufal had two singles each. Garner had a double for the Orioles, plus two of the 11 walks given up by the Senator pitchers.

A&M Drill Field Gets Landscaping

The main drill field is having its face lifted in an effort to have it turfed and ready for the major parade activities next fall. An aerifier is being used to loosen the lightly packed soil and tiller to insert organic matter.

Site of most of the outdoor functions on the campus for many years, including the annual bonfire, the field is located in the center of the campus. Weekly waterings are expected to have the field completely covered with grass by the end of the summer.

A 15-foot walk will be constructed on the east side of the field to enable students and staff members to cross the field without wearing paths in the turf.

Hardgrove Wins First Pro Start

Joe Hardgrove, star left-hander with last year's Aggie baseball team, started and won his first game in the class A Eastern League. Hardgrove pitched a 5 hit, 3 to 0 win for Wilkes-Barre over Allentown.

Jimmy Williams, former A&M catcher, is on the Allentown team, but no word was available as to whether he played against Hardgrove.
