Game of Week

Luther Gets No-Hitter

Young Mark Luther, star pitcher for the Marion Pugh White Sox, had quite a day for himself Tuesday afternoon at Little League stadium.

The hard-throwing right-hander chalked up a no-hit, no-run game against the V. F. W. Red Sox—and hit himself a home run as well.

The win was the fourth as against no losses for Luther, and the home run was his fifth, putting him only one behind his teammate Condy Pugh, the league's home run leader with six.

Luther's home run came in the third inning with one man on base. The drive was a towering blast that just dropped over the left field fence. In fashioning his no-hitter, he struck out eight and walked only two. His teammates played good ball behind him, making only one error.

The Red Sox were up and down in the first. Coming to bat in the bottom of the initial inning, leadoff man Lane Coulter singled for the first of three hits he collected Tuesday. Coulter, the shortstop, then stole second base, and came home on second baseman Danny Feldman's hit to right. Red Sox pitcher, Eldon Hagler, then bore down, getting Cyril Burke to fly out, striking out the dangerous Pugh, and forcing Luther to ground out, second to first.

The White Sox picked up two runs in the second inning, when after two walks sandwiched between two strike outs, Coulter drove in left fielder Jimbo Bevans with his second hit, a single to left. John Stark, the White Sox center fielder who had walked, took third on the throw to home from left field, and then scored on a passed ball. Feldman grounded out to end the inning.

Coming to bat in the fourth leading 5 to 0, the White Sox iced the game with 7 runs. Coulter walked, Feldman popped out to second base, then Burke was safe on an error, Coulter taking third. Pugh hit a pop single to short left field, which the left fielder could not quite reach. With the bases loaded, Luther hit a hard grounder in the hole between short and third. The shortstop grabbed it and threw to third, but third baseman Tommy Taylor dropped it, leaving one run in and the bases still full. First baseman Irvin Todd was safe on an error, and Pugh came in on a wild pitch. Bevans walked, and Harold Cooner, who had taken over in center in the fourth, singled in two runs, going to second on the throw. After an out, Coulter doubled in Cooner with the final run of the inning.

Going into the final inning, David Bailey, pinch-hitting for the Red Sox, struck out. Gandy grounded to shortstop who threw the ball over the first baseman's head. A wild pitch started Gandy toward second, but the fast ball rebounded off the back stop and the White Sox catcher, Pugh, threw him out. Howard was called out on strikes to end the game and preserve Luther's no-hitter.

White Sox Winner Of LL First-Half

The Marion Pugh White Sox won the first-half of the College Station Little League with a record of 7 wins and 1 loss. The first-half ended Saturday, with the Black's Pharmacy Senators handing the White Sox their first loss, 13 to 10.

In second place behind the White Sox was the Student Co-op Orioles, with a 5-4 record. The Senators had a 4-4 record, and had a tie game with the White Sox. In last place were the young V. F. W. Red Sox, with 1 win against 8 losses.

Besides Saturday's game last week, the other results were as follows: Thursday, White Sox 4, Orioles 2; and Friday, Orioles 7, Red Sox 1. (Last week's games previous to Thursday were in last Thursday's Battalion.)

The Orioles started the second-half of the season with a 7 to 4 win over the Senators. Tuesday, the White Sox clobbered the Red Sox 12 to 0 on Mark Luther's no-hit, no-run effort. (See Game of Week). Yesterday the Orioles stopped the Red Sox 14 to 1 behind Tommy Kerley's 5-hit pitching. Kerly is now 3 and 1.

Through the first-half, Cyril Burke of the White Sox was the leading hitter with a percentage of .650. Following Burke were Irvin Todd and Condy Pugh, both of the White Sox, with marks of .478 and .455 respectively. The Senators' Joe Olian was the fourth leading hitter with a .429 average, and Mark Luther of the White Sox was fifth, with .400.

Pugh leads the home run hitters with six, and Luther had four during the first-half. (Luther hit his fifth Tuesday.)

Luther also was the leading pitcher with a 3-0 mark, and picked up his fourth win Tuesday.

Fishing should pick up in Little Darby Creek, Marysville, Ohio. A truck hauling live fish overturned in the creek.
