

Game of Week Senators Blast Red Sox

What had been a tight pitcher's duel between the Red Sox's Tommy Taylor and the Senator's Jim Fowler exploded into a lopsided victory for the Black's Pharmacy Senators yesterday afternoon at Little League Park.

The Senators broke loose for nine runs in the fifth inning, pulling away from a tight 2 to 1 lead they had held up to that time. They picked up another run in the next inning to take a 12 to 1 game from the Red Sox.

Backed by hefty hitting, and doing quite a job in the hitting department himself, Fowler handcuffed the V.F.W. Red Sox on two hits. Fowler lost his shutout through his own brief wildness, letting loose a wild pitch which allowed a runner to score from third base. That one time was about his only weakness, though, as he dealt out only three walks and struck out seven. The win gave him a 3 won, 2 lost record for the season.

The last inning was pitched by another Senator regular, Johnnie Williams, who had played short-stop during the first five innings.

Fowler, centerfielder Joe Olian and third baseman Sydney Coufal all collected three hits apiece during the game. Among them, they scored five runs and drove in five. Leftfielder Larry Lewis collected two hits for the Senators, scoring a run and driving in two. The Senators also picked up 14 walks, with James Riggs, first baseman, and Jim Mills, second baseman, getting three apiece.

The Senators picked up a double by Coufal in the first, but no damage was done in the scoring ledger. The Red Sox leadoff man, shortstop Charles Gandy, walked, then Fowler struck out the next three men to end the inning.

The Senators picked up a run in the second with two out. The Red Sox pitcher walked four men in a row after two groundouts. Calvin Schein was the runner scoring from third on the fourth walk, this one to Lewis. The Red Sox got one of their two hits in their half of the second as the first batter, center fielder Jack Fugate, singled. Fugate was forced out at second, and the next two batters made outs to end the innings.

The Senators got nothing in the third, as the Red Sox played heads up ball. A low throw on the first batter's grounder to short was scooped up by first baseman Fred Wright, and the pitcher threw out a baserunner trying to steal second while he wasn't looking. The Red Sox went down in order.

The Senators picked up a run in the fourth on Fowler's single, an error, a stolen base, and a double steal. Fowler came home while Red Sox catcher Eldon Hagler was throwing out Riggs, who had walked. The Red Sox got their only run in the bottom half of the fourth. Taylor singled, and was forced at second by Wright, who was safe on a fielder's choice. Fugate had an apparent hit to center field, but the centerfielder threw out the runner going to second, making Fugate's effort a fielder's choice. Hagler was hit by a pitched ball, and left fielder Andy Adams was safe on an error—filling the bases. Fugate scored when Fowler made a wild heave, but right fielder Bobby Medlen struck out to end the threat.

The Senators made nine runs in the fifth, with Olian and Fowler both getting two hits each in the inning. All told, the Senators got six hits and six walks in the inning. Olian scored twice during the Senator barrage. The Red Sox got one runner via the walk route, but no scoring occurred.

In the sixth, the Senators got their last run. Mills walked, and went to third on a wild pitch and a passed ball. Lewis struck out; catcher Jimbo Carroll grounded out, short to first, with Mills holding third; then Coufal singled, scoring Mills. Olian followed with a double, Coufal going to third, but Williams popped to second to end the White Sox half. Coming to bat in their last chance, the Red Sox picked up a walk to Wright, leading off. Fugate fled to center; Wright stole second, and went to third on a wild pitch. Weldon Umphress struck out, and Wright made the final out, being tagged as he tried to score on a pitch that got away from the catcher.

The win gave the Senators a 3 won, 1 lost record for the second half. The Red Sox now have a 1 and 4 record.

Score by innings:
Senators 0 10 12 11-41
Red Sox 000 100 1-2-0

LL Dedicates Lights Thursday

Dedication of the lights at Little League Park will be held next Thursday night, with a double header scheduled to provide entertainment.

The first game, Red Sox vs. Orioles, will get under way at 5:30. The second game, pitting the Senators against the White Sox, will begin at 7:30. Sometime between the games, Gibb Gilchrist, head of this year's Little League program, will make a short "thank you" speech to the persons who have helped make lighting the field possible.

Little League results last week were as follows: Thursday and Friday, no game; Saturday, Senators 6—Red Sox 3; Monday, Red Sox 7—White Sox 6; Tuesday, Orioles 12—Senators 11; and yesterday, Senators 12—Red Sox 1. (See Game of Week.)

The second half standings through Wednesday's games show the Senators leading with a 3 and 1 record; next comes the Orioles with a 2 and 1 record. The White Sox have won 1, lost 1, and the Red Sox trail with a 1 and 4 record.

The leading hitters through Tuesday's games are Cyril Burke, White Sox, 481; Joe Olian, Senators, 457; Irvin Todd, White Sox, 452; Condy Pugh, White Sox, 444; and Jim Fowler, Senators, 382.

The schedule for next week is as follows:
Today—White Sox vs. Orioles.
Friday—Orioles vs. Red Sox.
No games Saturday and Monday.
Tuesday—Senators vs. Orioles.
Wednesday—White Sox vs. Red Sox.

MSC Gets New Record Collection

The Memorial Student Center has a new collection of records, mainly classical and opera, that are available in the record playing rooms, and also will be used over the Center's sound system.

The 45-piece collection is in the Browning Library at the MSC. The records are a purchase of the MSC's Music Group. A new shipment is coming to supplement the new records already at the Center.

The selections were picked last spring after a study of what both students and faculty would like to have in the record library.

Of course you "ought to go to church," you say. But, you keep putting it off. Then here's just one of the many reasons why you should start going to church—NOW!

As an American, you like to come and go where you please, and when: You like to speak what you please, and how. You like to pursue life, liberty, and happiness as you will. And in these United States you can—because we still have freedom. You can worship in whatever church you choose—or not at all.

But this freedom of religion and all our other liberties should not be taken for granted. Throughout free countries, the Church is fighting the peril of communism, lest individuals be strangled into hopeless, plodding submission.

Freedom, then, is reason enough. Go to church! Support and uphold the Church—NOW!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
