

Former Dean Honored As Man of Month

Charles N. Shepardson, former dean of the School of Agriculture, has been designated by the East Texas Chamber of Commerce as its "Man of the Month" for July.

The story of Shepardson's career, which resulted in his becoming known to most Texans as "Mr. Agriculture," is featured in the July issue of East Texas Magazine, official publication of the regional chamber.

When informed of Shepardson's appointment to the Board of Governors for the Federal Reserve System, D. W. Williams, vice-chancellor for agriculture, said, "Having worked closely with Dean Charles Shepardson for some 27 years, I can say without reservation that he is a 'top hand' on any assignment he undertakes."

Williams added that Shepardson has a "rare combination of the academic and the practical, of the discipline required for first-class performance with the sympathy and knowledge of human shortcomings, of the give and take, of hard work and hard play. He is an obstinate taskmaster and an understanding employer."

Sweet and Sour Pork

1 lb. pork
1/4 cup soybean sauce
1/2 t. salt
1 cup flour
1 1/2 cups sugar

1 cup vinegar
1 carrot
4 onions
2 small peppers
1 t. chopped parsley

Slice the meat into small pieces, about one inch. Mix meat well in soybean sauce and salt. Stir flour in water to make a thin paste, and dip each piece of meat in the paste. Drop in pan with frying oil and cook until brownish.

Take sugar and vinegar and season to your taste with salt, pepper, and whatever other condiments you wish. Carrots, onions, pepper and parsley may be chopped or sliced fine and added to the sweet and sour solution.

Remove oil from pan and add sweet and sour solution and vegetables to the cooked meat. When all are thoroughly heated it is ready to serve. Makes enough for four.
