

Dedication Held At Lighted Park

The dedication service of the lights at the Little League Park in College Station was held last Thursday night. Gibb Gilchrist, head of this year's Little League program, spoke, thanking the persons and organizations who made the new facilities possible.

Thanks were extended to the B & W Crane Service of Bryan, for providing a crane for placing the light poles; to Andrews Parker Inc., for digging the holes; and to Franky Brown, for directing the erection of the poles.

The lighting system was installed by the City of College Station. Jim Colson provided equipment for digging the holes for the pole guy wires, and also dug the holes for the dugouts last year.

Gilchrist also expressed appreciation to T. W. Hughes, local home builder, and his associates for help in constructing the tool house, and to the Marion Pugh Lumber Co., "who many times last year and this year purposely failed to bill us for materials used for Little League purposes."

A new feature added to the park is an electric ball and strike indicator donated by the Student Coop store. The scoreboard was given by the Culpepper-Manning Insurance Agency and Culpepper Realty Co.

The league gets money for operation in several ways. Organizations pay for advertisements on the outfield fences, memberships are sold for $1 each, and a collection is taken up at games.

Advertisers on the fences are: Bryan Sewing Machine Co., Woodson Lumber Co.; Fitch and Persky, general contractors; Butter Krust Bread; Andrews-Parker Inc., general contractors; Coca Cola Co.; Fugate Printing Co.; B & W Construction Co.; Dale Construction and Steel Building Co.; Mais Super Market; McCall's Service Station; General Insurance, Homer Adams; Aggeland Studio; Rainbo Bread; College Station State Bank; Velvet Ice Cream; Southside Food Market; Eugene Rush, insurance; Pruitt's Fabric Shop;

Minor League LL Teams End Season

The American League all-star team of the minor league of the College Station Little League program banged out a 19 to 7 win over the National League all-stars Tuesday night at Little League Park. It ended the minor league season.

Hitting star for the night was Hutch Mayhugh, right fielder for the American League, who had four hits in five times at the plate, three runs scored and four runs batted in. Mayhugh also pitched in the fifth inning. Bob Whiting got two for four. Allan Coulter got four walks for the American Leaguers, scoring three runs. Leslie Brusse and Jerry Lewis also scored three runs.

For the Nationals, Walter Varvel who played left field, pitcher and shortstop, got two hits and drove in four runs. First baseman Bob Houze also collected two hits.

All told, the American League all-stars got eight hits and the Nationals also got eight. Both teams also got 11 walks apiece. The eight errors made by the National Leaguers hurt them, as their opponents were only making one.

The National League used four pitchers, Ernest Wright, Furman Isbell, Varvel and Peter Dalhinger. The American League used three pitchers, Ozzie Burke, Joe Orsak and Mayhugh.

White Sox Winners

The Marion Pugh White Sox have clinched the second half championship of the College Station Little League, and, thus, become champions of the entire league. They earlier had won the first half with a 7 won, 1 lost record—identical with that of their second half win.

The Student Coop Orioles had a 4-4 record, the Black's Pharmacy Senators had a 3-4 record, and the V. F. W. Red Sox were last with a 1-8 mark. The White Sox and Senators still have a game to play, being rained out last night, in order to complete the number of games required by Little League rules.

The all-star team of the local league will advance into the district playoffs later this month against the all-star teams of the three Bryan leagues.

Mark Luther of the White Sox is the leading pitcher of the league with 7 wins and 0 losses.
