Postdoctoral Fellowships To Be Offered

A limited number of postdoctoral fellowships in the mathematical, physical, medical, biological and engineering sciences, including anthropology, psychology (excluding clinical psychology), geography and certain interdisciplinary fields will be offered by the National Science Foundation, Dr. Ide P. Trotter, dean of the graduate school, has announced.

Offered in addition to the fellowships awarded by the Foundation in March of each year, these fellowships are open to any United States citizen who has earned a doctoral degree in one of the fields of science listed, or has had research training or experience equivalent to that represented by such a degree.

Length of the fellowship may vary from six months to two years upon submission by the applicants of adequate justification and the annual (12 month) award will be $3,400. Married Fellows will receive a dependency allowance of $350 plus $350 for each dependent child.

Application materials may be obtained from the Fellowship Office, National Research Council, 2101 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington 25, D.C.

Al Barlick, National League umpire, once was a coal miner in Illinois.

Tennis Team Competes In Jr. Olympics

The College Station tennis team participated Monday in the Junior Olympics, held in Houston at the University of Houston courts.

Oswald Burke and Tim Moore were the only local entrants to take a first place. They were entered in the midget division doubles.

Don Avera and Jerry Mills advanced to the semi-finals in the junior boys' doubles but were defeated 6-3, 6-3 by a team from South Park High School of Beaumont.

Also defeated in the semi-finals was the junior girls' doubles team, Susan Dowell and Betty Mills, who lost to a Baytown team in a close match, 6-9, 6-3, 6-8.

Jo Ann Nolen, senior girls' singles entrant, was defeated in the quarter-finals by Jackie Birdwell of Shreveport, La., and Mary Margaret Hierth, who was entered in junior girls' singles, lost to a state finalist from Houston.

The senior boys' doubles team, composed of David Lloyd and David Smyth, lost in the first round. Bill Jones, who represented the team in junior boys' singles, was defeated in his first match.

The group is coached by Leroy Miksch, tennis instructor for the recreation program.
