

Three CS Swimmers Win Medals

Gail Schlesselman, Martha Shawn and John Harrington, who entered the State AAU Swimming Championships in San Antonio last weekend, came back with several medals.

Gail won first place in the 110-yard butterfly breaststroke, and fourth in the 220-yard breaststroke. Martha took two second places in 110- and 220-yard backstroke, and John also placed second in the same races in the men's division.

This weekend the swimming team will enter the Golfcrest Invitational Meet in Houston, which will be held Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Entrants in the junior division, for those 13 and under, will be Helen Klipple, Patsy Wilkins, Patsy Varvel, Sally Lehr, Sharon Patterson, Linda Chalk, Marcia Goode, Shirley Rogers, Mary Frances Badgett, Fred Brison, Joe Brusse, Jud Rodgers, Alex Quisenberry and Howard Mitchell.

Intermediates will be Tom Ivy, Richard Badgett, John Harrington, Judy Litton, Martha Shawn, Gail Schlesselman, Mary Varvel, Ann Williamson and Pat Jackson.

Tetsuo Okamoto, Roland Baird, Don Draper, Skippy Fletcher, Jim Skelton, Ann Schlesselman and Geri Lapham will be entered in the senior division for the 17-and-above age group.

CS Swimmers Place In Meet

Several of College Station's young swimmers took places in the Junior Olympics held in Houston, July 28, and led their team to fifth place in the girls' division and sixth in the boys'.

Alex Quisenberry won third place in the 50-meter backstroke, and Sally Lehr, who swam in the 200-meter individual medley, got fourth.

The girls' 200-meter medley relay team took fourth place. Swimming on it were Sally Lehr, Patsy Varvel, Shirley Rogers and Pamela Hayes.

A team composed of Alex Quisenberry, Clarke Kimberling, Joe Brusse and David Reynolds placed third in the 200-meter medley relay and fifth in the 200-meter freestyle relay.

Two in Louisiana For Short Course

Two members of the A&M staff were on the program of the Second Annual Sales and Management Short Course for Flowers held at Louisiana State University this week.

They are A. F. DeWerth, head of the Department of Floriculture and Landscape Architecture, and Dr. H. B. Sorensen of the Department of Agricultural Economics and Sociology.

Subjects of their talks, respectively, were "Merchandising Control and Care Insures a Profit," and "Supplying Cut Flowers and Flowering Pot Plants for Everyday Use in the Home."

The short course is sponsored jointly by Louisiana State University's Agricultural Extension Service, and the Louisiana State Florists Association.
