

Consolidated

 school at the level of operations called for under the proposed budget.
 (Indications are that the board will adopt a budget approximately comparable to that proposed and that a tight rein will be held on expenditures so that money can go to help pay off the deficit. The immediate problem to be solved, however, is the money owed by Sept. 1—which is the matter to be taken up at the meeting tonight.)

(The flurry of excitement over Consolidated's main financial problem overshadowed the action taken by the City Council about quitting the job of assessing and collecting school taxes by Jan. 31, 1956. The action was presented to the school board by City Councilman Joe Orr, who came to the budget hearing from the Council meeting that night.)

Orr explained the Council's feeling that the school tax program was now large enough for the board to hire a full-time man as business manager. He also repeated City Manager Ran Boswell's statement that the city would have to increase its personnel to take care of the growing school tax program.

The general reaction of the school board and of several of the citizens present at the budget hearing was that the thing was dropped in their lap without warning. (The time allowed was also sharply debated at the Council meeting.)

Orr told the board that the Council would listen to any reasons given and, given proper reasons why, might possibly withdraw its resolution. He also reminded the board that the Council had said several years ago that the program was only temporarily to be in the hands of the city.

(Comment — in view of Consolidated's present situation, some very proper reasons would seem to be around that should prevail on the City Council to reconsider its action.)

Housing

Students who reserve rooms can pay either the $6 room reservation fee, or the first installment of their fee, or the fee for the entire semester. Veterans will first report to the Veterans Advisor's Office.

Civilian students must be moved to their new rooms by 6 p. m. Friday, Aug. 26, in all dorms except Walton and Hart. Students moving to these two dorms will not be able to move to their specific rooms, but they may move their belongings to Hart B-1, B-2 or B-3, or to Walton J-1 or J-3. Belongings will not be left in old rooms.

Dorms that are now closed will be unlocked from 1 to 5 p. m. Aug. 25 and 26 for students who must move.

All dorms except Bizzell will be locked at 6 p. m., Friday, Aug. 26. Any student who for any reason cannot be out of his room by this time should contact the Office at least by 6 p. m. Aug. 25 to make temporary arrangements.

All day students, including those living in college apartments, are urged to secure day student permits and pay their fees early.
