

Tigers Meet Madisonville Friday Night

A&M's Consolidated Tigers, after losing a 7-6 heartbreaker to Hempstead in the season opener, meet strong opposition in their bid to break into the 1955 win column when they take on the tough Madisonville Mustangs at Madisonville Friday night.

Consolidated faces no easy task, however, as the Mustangs are well stocked with 13 lettermen. Although falling before Tomball 24-19 last week, the Mustangs had two touchdowns called back due to penalties.

Paced by two returning all-District performers, the Mustangs will be out to revenge last year's 26-6 drubbing at the hands of CHS. The two Mustang standouts are end Ronald Standley and right half-back David Tingley.

Billy Brock, triple-threat Mustang quarterback, turned in a fine performance against Tomball last week.

CHS Coach Horace Schaffer, who is being assisted by Larry Hayes, plans to start the same offensive eleven he used last Friday.

Norman Floeck and Manuel Garcia will man the end posts; Dick Hickman and Ed Linton, tackles; Garland Andrews and Jack McNeely, guards; and Steadman Davis, center.

The backfield foursome includes quarterback Edgar Feldman, Bobby Witcher and Bill Hall, halfbacks and Bill Kavanaugh, fullback.

Defensive changes find Donald Vaughn, Wayne Thompson and Bo Linton taking over for Davis, Witcher and Feldman.

In losing to Hempstead Consolidated battled its way within the Bobcats' twenty-yard line on five occasions, while Hempstead could gain only two penetrations.

Hempstead ate up 329 yards on the ground and 12 through the air for a total gain of 341 yards. CHS chalked up 197 yards, gaining 154 rushing and 43 passing.

Consolidated's only touchdown came midway in the first quarter as Feldman shook loose for six points on a 29-yard gallop. A delay of the game penalty cost CHS five yards on the try for the extra point, and Floeck's attempted kick was partially blocked by the hard charging Bobcat line.

Hempstead reached pay-dirt early in the fourth period, as Marvin Dibbens, who gained 230 yards for the winners, rambled 96 yards to a touchdown. Tackle Santiago Olvera booted the crucial extra point.

The Tigers reached Hempstead's 3-yard line later in the final period, but couldn't crack the stubborn Bobcat defense.

Lincoln To Open Against Calvert

The Lincoln High School Panthers will open play tomorrow night against the Calvert eleven in Calvert.

The Panthers will draw an open for the following week but will take on Gatesville for their first home game of the season Sept. 29.

Rosebud will play host to the Lincoln eleven Oct. 7, the first district game. Other games and their dates are Cameron, Oct. 12; Rockdale, Oct. 21; Snook, Oct. 26; Caldwell, Nov. 3; and Taylor, Nov. 9.

Health Report

Diarrhea was the leading disease in the area for the week ending Sept. 10 with 38 cases reported, according to the Bryan-Brazos County Health Unit. Strep throat was second with 22 cases reported and gonorrhoea was third with five cases reported.
