

New Wives Council Churches Schedule Mid-Week Services Elects Officers

Gardner Osborn, representing the Electrical Engineering Wives' Club, was elected president of the Aggie Wives Council.

The council, which originated this summer, is made up of the president and a representative of the wives clubs. So far approximately 17 clubs have been represented.

Other officers elected were Barbara Cloninger, Bridge club, vice-president; Joy Jones, Business club, secretary; Beverly Humphries, Dames club, treasurer; Kathy Neinast, Business club, parliamentarian; and Barbara Duncan, Band club, reporter.

The council is planning a bowling league between the separate clubs. Members of the league will meet with John Geiger, manager of the bowling alley, 7:30 p.m., Tuesday in room 2-A of the MSC. Geiger will give instructions on form, rules and procedure for newcomers in bowling.

Anyone interested should sign up for the league through their

Dance Registration

At the registration held Monday night, 197 students signed up for the Memorial Student Center dancing classes. Registration will be open for two more weeks, according to Mike Kuich, chairman of the dancing class committee.

Capers Combo will play for the Council dance to be held Nov. 19. Tickets of $1.50 per couple go on sale in October.

Next meeting of the Council will be held Oct. 10 at the home of Mrs. Robert Kamm, sponsor. Any club who has not sent a representative to the Council, is urged to attend the next meeting. Please contact Joy Jones at 6-1042.

It is the Council's hope to form a harmonious unity between the wives clubs, sponsor socials for all wives clubs combined, and make an over-all list of all student wives for the benefit of club membership.
