

Big Weekend Ahead

A&M is going to host a lot of people during its first big football and social weekend, which starts tonight.

People mean crowds, and crowds can mean trouble unless each individual is able to maintain personal control.

With tempers shortened by having to drive around and around—and with no promise of relief from the sultry weather that hasn't helped at all—some persons are going to carry a chip on their shoulder.

Many Aggies and Aggie fans will remember last year's game with rancor. Those witnessing that game might well remember the ill-feeling that sometimes broke into fights after the game.

And should fights break out at the game tomorrow night, they still would prove nothing. Whoever wins the game has won—and no amount of black eyes and bloody noses are going to change that.

A group of Aggies are going to Houston tomorrow morning to give the Cougar's an official welcome from the A&M student body.

But it will be up to us here to prove that there is something tangible behind that spirit.

Be friendly. Remember, the cougar is a relation of the cat—and the cat is a domesticated animal.

Prediction

Our football predictions are on the sports page. But right here The Battalion predicts that the union fee was approved by students by a majority of 5 to 1.

We'll soon know, for the results are to be declared by the A&M System Board of Directors, meeting here tomorrow. It was a $2 well invested. Thanks.

Protection Conference

Features Security Head

N. K. Dixon, chief of the internal security division of the Texas Department of Public Safety, served as a feature guest instructor at the Industrial Plant Protection School here this week.

The school seeks to provide industrial plant protection personnel from Texas with practical training in procedures related to plant security.

Dixon told the "students" that the "ever-increasing strategic importance of Texas, both from the industrial and military standpoint, makes this state a major target for Communist infiltration."

He pointed out that this situation calls for close vigilance on the part of plant protection men as well as all citizens.

Dixon said the function of sabotage is not only to create bottlenecks in industrial production but to spread unrest and confusion through false rumors and whispering campaigns.

He emphasized that it is the aim of all Communists to aid in overthrowing any government which appears to stand in their way of achieving world communism.

Ehlers, Brazos County youth counselor; Luke E. Robinson, chief legal examiner of the Texas Liquor Control Board; Joel Tisdale, supervisor of photography of Public Safety Department; Glenn McLaughlin, chief of the Bureau of Identification and records.

Sheriff J. E. (Bill) Decker, Dallas county; Lt. J. R. Arnold, Texas Highway Patrol; Forrest V. Sorrels, supervising agent of the U.

S. Secret Service; Royce Calvert, of National Automobile Theft Bureau; Sgt. H. McFarling of the Texas Highway Patrol, Department of Public Safety.

Capt. T. G. Ferguson, Drivers License Division, Department of Public Safety; Claude B. Evans, training director of the Amarillo Police Department; N. K. Woerner, chief of the statistical division, Department of Public Safety; James F. Fowler, Minister of the Church of Christ.

'56 Town Hall Opens Season Tuesday Night

The first Town Hall of the year will appear in White Coliseum Tuesday at 8 p.m.

Appearing in their first national tour Fiesta Mexicana, complete with 30 artists recently picked at auditions at Mexico City, will present a show straight from the hearts of the Mexican people.

The show will feature such dances as the world famous Jarabe Tapatio, "Mexican Hat Dance," which is now the national dance of Mexico; the Bamba, where dancers tie and untie a knot with their feet without losing step; and the Pluma, where the men wear circular head dresses made of feathers from quetzal birds.

The production is based on the everyday lives of the people of Mexico. Elements of the company are dance groups bringing the dances of regions from which they come, a trio singing romantic popular songs, a tenor and soprano, a Mariachi band and a number of musicians playing Mexican instruments.

Tickets for the production were included in the student activities fee or may be purchased at the door or at the office of Student Activities in Goodwin Hall. Price of the tickets are $2.50 reserved seats and $2.00 general admission.
