Can the 1955 version of A&M's freshmen football team step in and fill the shoes left vacant by last year's Southwest Conference champions?

That's the question Aggie fans are asking as the Fish open the season against the strong TCU Wogs Thursday night on Kyle Field. Game time is 7:30.

Despite the Southwest Conference disciplinary action on Aggie letters of intent last Spring the '55 team boasts some of the state's outstanding athletes, led by all-American Don Usry, Cleburne end, and Luther Hall, Dallas (Sunset) quarterback.

Usry, perhaps one of the most sought after schoolboy stars in the nation, was on the all-state, all-Southern and all-America teams. Hall was named the outstanding player at the annual high school all-American game in Memphis last August. An all-state tailback at Sunset, Luther has been moved to quarterback in the Aggie split-T. Both are expected to start.

Close behind Hall at quarterback are Hal Sandefur, all-stater from Paducah, and two-year all-state tailback from Port Arthur, Jackie Hathorn. Nederland's A. A. Crews brings all-state recognition to tackle as does guard Tommy Howard of Galveston's Ball.

Lacking depth, but with a big, mobile line the Wogs are hopeful of besting last year's record when they failed to win a game. The Fish handed the first-year Frogs their initial defeat last fall, 7-0.

A backfield of Hunter Enis, Fort Worth Poly, at quarter; Johnny Gregory, Fort Worth North Side, at full; Allan Laurence of Corpus Christi Miller and Roger Hurst of Yakima, Wash., at halfbacks, will open for the Wogs.

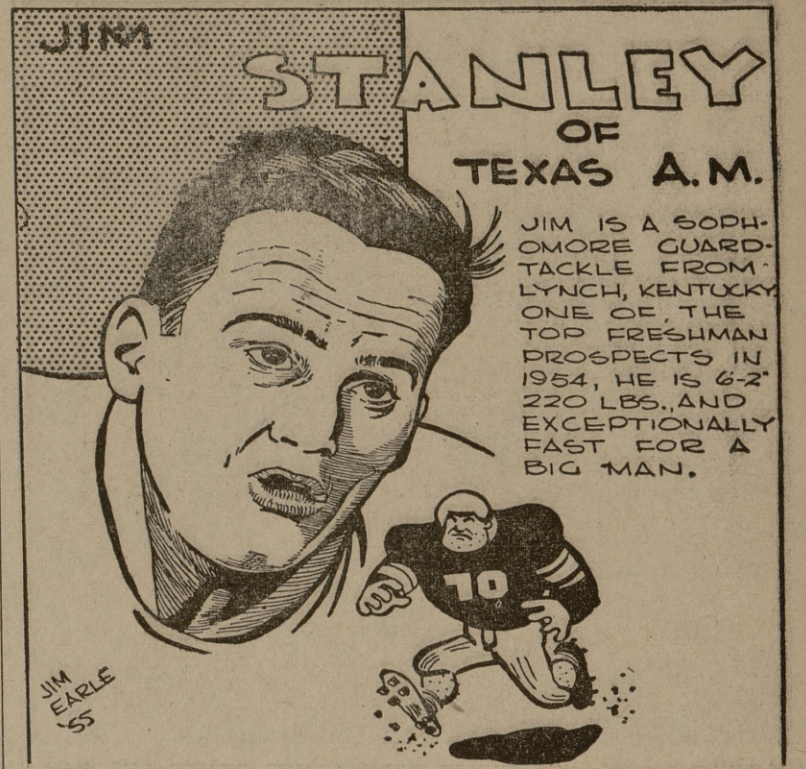

Enis, an all-state performer, hit

81 of 146 passes for 1,002 yards last year to rank second among 4A tossers. Gregory, 175, ranked sixth in the state in rushing. Laurence, a trackman, and Hurst, who played in the Air Force, are very fast.

The line will average close to 215 pounds. Pat Norwood, 205 of Corpus Christi and Joe Robb, a Lufkin hand last year, are due at the ends; J. D. McCullough, 225, of Dallas, and Bill Culpepper, 220 of Pampa, or Itasca's 215-pound Walter Ince will be the tackles; starters at guard find Paul Pitts of Woodville and Austin's Bill Sloan; Dale Walker of Lampasas gets the nod at center.

Three promising players may miss the opener because of injuries. They are fullback Bobby Bounds of Lufkin, end Larry Roach of Victoria and Davis Bennett, all-state tackle from Jefferson.

30 Small-Frys Get Free Trip To Mexico

Thirty boys from somewhere in the United States will get a free trip to the Alamo, a ranch holiday, and a visit to nearby Mexico.

The youngsters will be members of the small-fry team selected to play in The National Milk Bowl, famed "Little" Bowl, at San Antonio, on December 10th, against an outstanding Texas team.

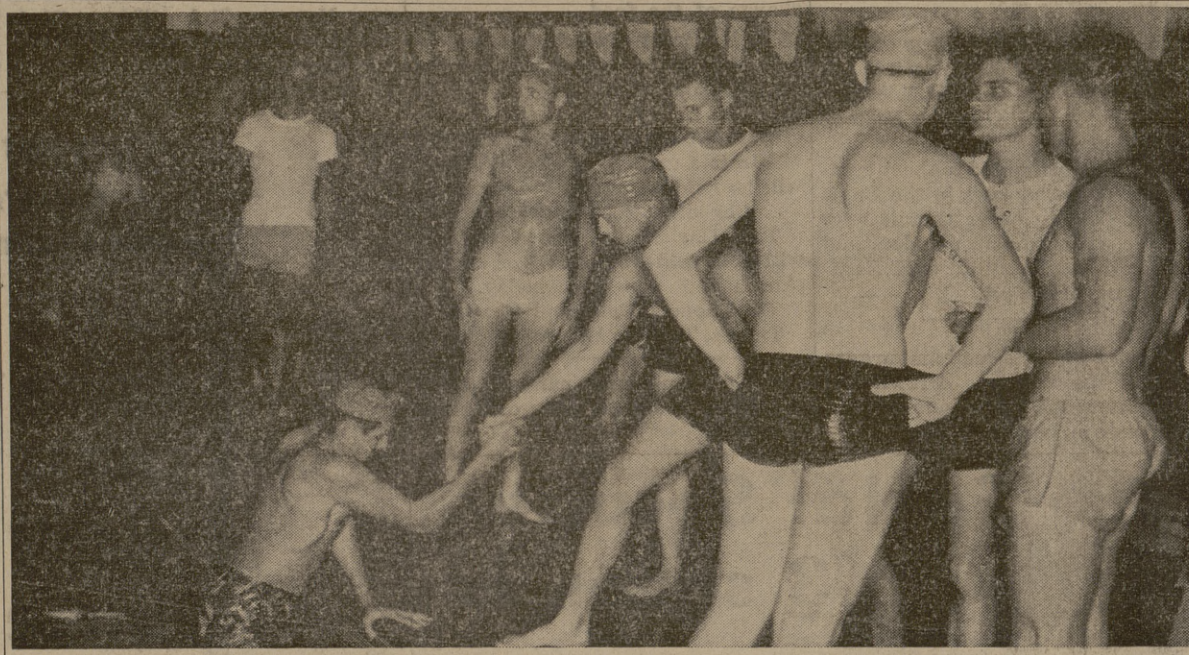

Small-fry teams eligible for consideration are those playing in after school programs or orphanages, recreation associations, neighborhood clubs, private and parochial schools, and civic groups.

The Milk Bowl has all the fanfare of the Rose Bowl and The Cotton Bowl: pre-game parties, queen contest, parade, visiting celebrities, and half-time ceremonies. This year will be initiated The First Annual Children's Pilgrimage to the Alamo, with an estimated 20,000 children coming from all parts of Texas for the visit and to witness the Bowl.

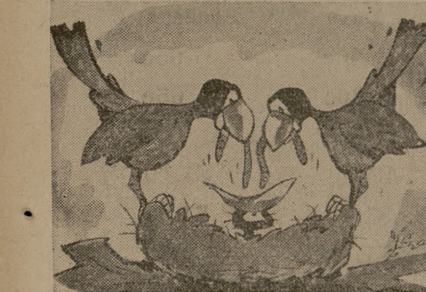

The event has national radio, TV film, movie, press, magazine, and syndicate coverage greater than most college bowls. Play-by-play is carried by as many as 300 radio stations in the nation. Live telecast will be added this year. Red Grange describes the game as "the world series of small-fry elevens." Players weigh no more than 110 pounds and are not over 14 years of age.

On the board of directors are Texas notables, including Governor Allan Shivers, Senator Price Daniel, Hugh Roy Cullen, Jesse H. Jones, and Glenn H. McCarthy.

Interested persons should write: Harry Evens, general chairman, The National Milk Bowl, 110 Chichester Street, San Antonio, Texas.
