Nutrition Meeting To Be Held Here

More than 250 persons are expected to attend the 1955 Texas Nutrition Conference to be held here today and tomorrow. Feeding and nutrition problems will be discussed by some of the nation's leading authorities on such subjects.

Titles of talks to be given range from "Energy-Protein Relationship in Turkey Starters," by Rollin H. Thayer of the Oklahoma A&M Department of Poultry Science, to "Disease Prevention With Medicated Feeds," by Dr. Sterling Brackett, director, Animal Industry Applications, American Cyanamid Co., New York City.

Dr. J. E. Adams, dean of the School of Agriculture, will welcome the group to the campus. Dr. J. R. Couch of the departments of Poultry Husbandry and Biochemistry is chairman for the conference.

tory 12-guard room about five minutes later. The students (another one had been caught while trying to help the captured student escape) gave their name and outfit to Capt. Crow and were then released, pending investigation.

The defendants said their signs were burned last year, and that none of the students realized the seriousness of their actions at the time.

The accused had planned to throw three bottles at dormitory 7, two at dormitory 5, and one at dormitories 1, 3, and 9.

The Senior Court recommendation has been sent to the Commandant's Office for approval.
