

Ags Tangle With Rugged Cornhuskers Tomorrow Afternoon Before 38,000

By RONNIE GREATHOUSE
Battalion Sports Editor

A&M tries to patch up an old wound tomorrow when it tangles with the rugged, but erratic, Nebraska Cornhuskers at Lincoln, Neb. before a sell-out crowd of 38,000.

The Cornhuskers beat the Aggies 13-0 in 1930 in the only meeting between the two teams on the gridiron.

WTAW's Bob Walker will broadcast a play-by-play account of the game starting at 2 p.m. Cloit Butler begins a pre-game warm up at 1:50.

The Aggie football team, 36 strong, left by plane at 10 a.m.

this morning from Easterwood Airport. Workouts tapered off yesterday, after Wednesday's hard scrimmage session, and the Cadets appeared in their usual fine shape for Saturday's game.

Stalwart guard Dee Powell, who has been outstanding in all three of A&M's games this season, hurt his knee in Wednesday's drills, but will definitely be available for action against Nebraska.

Experts Pick Ags

Still on the doubtful list for seeing duty Saturday is quarterback Bobby Conrad. Conrad, who injured his leg in workouts before the LSU game, won't start unless his condition has improved greatly since Thursday's workout.

Most of the experts are of the opinion that the Aggies will down the Cornhuskers, but by a slender margin.

"I just hope we can make it a tough game," said Coach Paul Bryant, "Nebraska will run over us if we don't watch out."

"They weren't just standing around in the game I saw them play, I'll tell you for sure," remarked Assistant Coach Tom Tipps, who scouted the Cornhuskers last week when they beat Kansas State 16-0.

A&M Ground Attack

Boasting three players among the top ten ball carriers in the Southwest Conference at present, A&M goes into the Nebraska fracas with a 239.3-yards per game average in rushing. The Aggies rank second only to TCU in this department.

Jarrin' John Crow and Jack Pardee rank third and fourth respectively in SWC rushing. Crow is only 11 yards behind second place Henry Moore of Arkansas with 204 yards in 31 carries for a 6.6 average. Pardee has 169 yards in 24 trips, and a 7.0 average per try.

Quarterback Donnie Grant holds down the 10th position among conference runners with 135 yards in 27 attempts for a 4.7 average.

Jimmy Wright, hustling signal-caller from Edinburg, is 9th in conference passing, having hit 6 of 21 passes for a total of 80 yards, and an average of over 13 yards per pass.

Right halfback Ed Dudley stands No. 2 in conference punting with an average of 47.3 yards per kick. Gerald Nesbitt of Arkansas is first with 47.6. Halfback Loyd Taylor is second in point after touchdown kicks with a perfect 5 for 5 mark. Nebraska has had its ups and downs on the football field this year, having fallen before weak Hawaii, 0-6, in its opener, and rise up to almost upset highly rated Ohio State the following Saturday.

Runner-up in the Big Seven Conference behind Oklahoma last season, the Cornhuskers have 14 returning lettermen to build around.

Ag Harriers Meet UT, OU Here Today

A&M's defending Southwest Conference champion cross country team opens the 1955 season against Texas and Oklahoma on the cross country course at the rodeo arena today at 3:30 p.m.

"It should be very close, but with three lettermen and one squadman running for us, we should be as strong as anybody," said head track coach Frank Anderson. Ray Putnam coaches the cross country squad.

Lettermen Bill Cocks, Bob Boles and Fidell Rul, squadman Carl Wilmsen and sophomore Don Carver, up from last year's fish team, will run for the Aggies. Carver replaced squadman Ed Blake, who is expected to be out of action for a week with an injury.

Texas' number one distance runner, Southwest Conference Cross Country Champ Inocencio Cantu, lost the battle of the books last Spring and is ineligible.

A&M meets the University of Texas again in a dual meet at Austin Oct. 14 and travels to Arkansas Oct. 28. SMU visits College Station Nov. 5.

Fish Football

Lonnie Leatherman punched over from one yard out. The try for point was low.

Hall broke lose for the game's most thrilling run on the following kickoff as he moved up the middle, found a hole and sprinted 59 yards to the TCU 26. Back at quarterback, Hall kept for 2 and on the next play handed off to Pascuzzi who darted 24 yards for the final counter. With Hall holding, Pascuzzi converted to make the final score, 27-6.

All-around aggressiveness by the stout Aggie line threw the TCU backs for losses at crucial moments and caused them to fumble five times. Center Dick Goff, guards Tom Howard, Carl Luna and tackle Harold Price played outstanding games for the Fish.
