

Library Club Opens Book Fair Thursday

Such books as "Man in the Gray Flannel Suit" by Sloan Wilson, "Marjorie Morningstar," the Caine Mutiny author's new book and Nobel prize winner Thomas Mann's "Confessions of Felix Krull" will be among the 300 books on sale at the Book Fair, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

The Fair, sponsored by the Friends of the Library, will be held in the showroom of Massey Motors. Since there is no trade book store in Bryan, the Fair will give residents the opportunity to select popular books.

Persons interested in purchasing particular books are requested to place their orders in advance with Mrs. C. W. Simmons, Mrs. Roy Snyder, president of the Friends, or Mrs. A. W. Melloh, Carnegie Librarian.

The Carnegie Library will benefit from the fair by a percentage of the sales. Cokesbury Book Store in Dallas, who is sending the books on consignment, will give a liberal percentage of all sales.

Among the 150 adult novels expected are "The Haunted Hacienda," by Madison Cooper; "The Genius and the Goddess" by Aldus Huxley; "The Tontine," by Thomas Costain; and "Homecoming" by Jiro Osaragi, a translation of a work by one of Japan's foremost novelists.

Also ordered for the fair are 150 children's books among which are both versions of Peter Pan: the original by Sir Philip Barrie and the Walt Disney version and "Horton Hears a Who" by Dr. T. Geisel Suess, author of the classic "To Think That I Found It On Mulberry Street."

The Book Fair will be open from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Thursday and Saturday and from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Friday.

K of C Invites Visitors To Join Council

The Knights of Columbus are holding a get-acquainted party at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at St. Mary's Catholic Student Center.

This is one of the two opportunities every year, Catholic men have the chance to join the order.

At 5:30 p.m. Wednesday, which is Columbus Day, three A&M students, Walter Parsons, Don Dierschke, and Johnny Petter will present the history of the Knights over WTAW.

Named after the famous explorer, the Council was originally formed in 1882 by Father Michael McGivney of New Haven, Conn. as an insurance aid to the laboring class.

Grand knight of the Council is Bob Manning. Other officers include J. O. Koehl, deputy grand knight; Louis Gorzycki, financial secretary; John Ferguson, recorder; Clyde Wharton, chancellor; Richard Dilts, warden; Bert Hoff, secretary; L. M. Novorak and Ed Holick, trustees; Don Dierschke, advocate and past grand knight; Father Sylvester Fuchs, chaplain; John Petter, general program chairman; Harry Kilena, lecturer; and Jules Cabeen, Robert Peters, and Bill Cooper, guards.

The main project of the Council is to help obtain finances for the new chapel to be erected in the near future.

Biscuits and muffins reheat beautifully when they are tightly wrapped in aluminum foil and put into a moderate oven for about twenty minutes.

Wives' Bowling League Starts Tonight In MSC

The Wives Clubs Bowling League will begin tonight in the MSC Bowling alley at 8:15. There have been six clubs enrolled in the "round robin" tournament.

"It's not too late to join the tournament," said Joy Jones, secretary. "Any club interested may send five members tonight and they can be scheduled."

John Geiger, manager of the bowling alley, will be on hand to instruct the girls on rules, correct approach, and form.

The newly formed Wives Council, consisting of representatives from the Wives' Clubs on the campus, is sponsoring the league to give a recreational outlet for the wives, many of whom work.

Blue jeans, pedal-pushers, or torso pants may be worn but the MSC requests that the girls not wear shorts or Bermuda shorts.

Bowling will cost $1 a night which includes regulation shoes and the alley. If you have your own bowling shoes, the charge is 90 cents.

Each club will have five players on its team with alternate players as substitutes.

A rules committee was appointed to decide whether handicaps be given to individuals or teams, along with setting up rules for the tournament.

and promptly fired a pass that was good for six points. Dudley kicked true to make the score 21-0.

Quarterback Jimmy Wright intercepted Erway's pass on the Aggie 34 to begin a 66-yard drive that netted A&M its last touchdown just 20 seconds before the final gun sounded. Wright's 23-yard pass to Hall was the longest gain in the march that took only eight plays. Wright scored on a keeper from 2-yards out, but Dudley missed the conversion try, the first for A&M this season.

Bill Willis Named

Bill Willis was elected president of the Arts and Science Council at a meeting held last week.

Other officers are Dwayne Bailey, vice president; Bennett Ragsdale, secretary-treasurer; Richard Gentry, senior representative; and Leland Pratt, junior representative.
