Hathorn carried five times for 27 yards and hit two of three passes for 37 yards, while Sandefur ran for 28 yards on nine tries at the line.

Pennsylvania product Joe Pascuzzi was the Fish leader in rushing with 50 yards on three trips, and in scoring with two touchdowns and three extra points. Pascuzzi, 25-year-old ex-serviceman, played a fine game on defense, contributed the key block on halfback Paul Delfeld's 33-yard scoring thrust early in the third quarter and took in two passes for 26 yards. Delfeld contributed 44 yards in four scampers.

Baylor's Cubs boast a line bigger than the Baylor varsity's forward wall, and a set of swift backs.

Waco High School's regular tackles from last season, all-stater Charlie Horton, 216, and tall Paul Dickson, 220, will start for the Cubs, with Damon Douglas, 215-pound husky from Athens and 200-pounder Buddy Burt from Chilli-cothe at the guard slots. Clarks-ville's Buck Cagle, a defensive star of last August's schoolboy All-Star game in San Antonio who weighs in at 200, will start at center. Albert Witcher, converted halfback from Lampasas and Bill Dennis of Cleburne will open at the end positions. Witcher weighs 186 and Dennis 196.

Buddy Humphrey, quarterback, Billy Prestidge and Farrell Fisher, halfbacks, and Larry Hickman, fullback make up the Cub back-field.

LUCKY DROODLES! LUCKY DROODLES! YEA!

WHAT'S THIS?
For solution, see paragraph below.

A FLIGHT OF IMAGINATION prompted the Droodle above—it's titled: Flying saucer with Lucky-smoking crew. But it's a down-to-earth fact that Luckies taste better than any other cigarettes—and for down-to-earth reasons. First of all, Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that light, mild tobacco is toasted to taste even better . . . cleaner, fresher, smoother. So, "Glurg shrldu!" (In saucer language, that means, "For taste that's out of this world, light up a Lucky!")

"IT'S TOASTED" to taste better!

COLLEGE SMOKERS PREFER LUCKIES!
Luckies lead all other brands, regular or king size, among 36,075 college students questioned coast to coast. The number one reason: Luckies taste better.
