Ike Renews Bid To Soviet Union For Arm Check

DENVER—(AP)—President Eisenhower formally renewed yesterday a bid to Russia to help dispel "fear and suspicion" by combining both his own and a Soviet plan for mutual checking on military installations and movements.

Eisenhower made the offer in a letter to Soviet Premier Nikolai A. Bulganin, signed Tuesday and delivered in Moscow yesterday.

Eisenhower's letter to Bulganin was in partial reply to one from the Russian Premier on Sept. 18 that used conciliatory terms but still dashed cold water on the chief executive's proposal that Russia and the United States trade military blueprints and permit mutual aerial inspection of military establishments.

Bulganin plugged for his own idea of creating "control posts" at large ports and railway junctions and on highways and airfields to "prevent dangerous concentrations of troops and combat equipment" and "remove the possibility of sudden attack."

"I hope that we can agree on it," Ike said, "not as a cure-all, but, as I said at Geneva, to show a spirit of nonaggressiveness on both sides and so to create a fresh atmosphere which would dispel much of the present fear or suspicion."

IE Club Officers' Names Correction

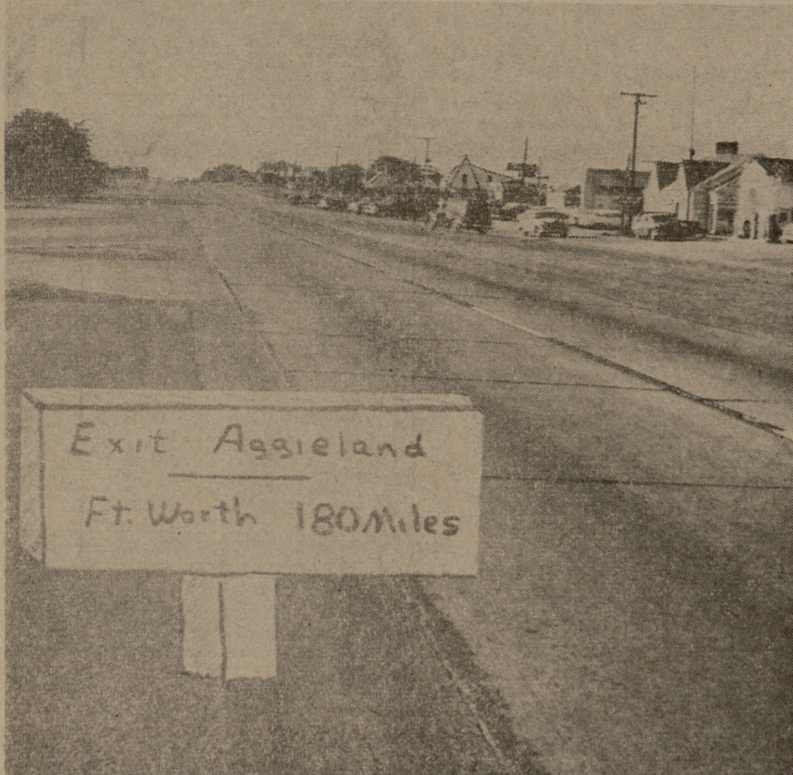

Something happened last Friday in the story about newly-elected officers of the Industrial Education Club. Gremlins in the typewriter is our only excuse for misspelling almost every name in the group. But here they are again, and correct this time, we hope.

Sam Kiker is president; Bob McCarn is vice-president; Al Stephens, secretary; Glen Pfeil, treasurer; Pete McMillan, program chairman; Jim Newman, social chairman; Carl Livesay, parliamentarian; Bob Vett, financial chairman; and Gordon DeMarrais, reporter. Frank Nixon of the I.E. Department is sponsor.

Town Hall Program

Chorale Here Wednesday

The second program in the current Town Hall series will be presented Wednesday night at White Coliseum, featuring the Robert Shaw Chorale, a group of 30 singers, known for concert tours, appearances with top-flight symphony orchestras, and a long list

STARTING POINT—Friday is the start of the first Corps trip weekend for this year, and shown is the starting point from which more than 4,000 students will travel to Fort Worth for the game Saturday with TCU. It's around 180 miles to "Cowtown," and many students are expected to make long or short stops in Denton, home of the Tessies of TSCW. Friday night, a dance and a yell practice will be held on the TSCW campus.

Court Okays Funds For Mixed Schools

AUSTIN.—(AP)—The Texas Supreme Court yesterday upheld expenditure of public funds for schools attended by both Negro and white students. It emphasized its ruling does not require immediate integration.

The nine-man court unanimously struck down a 79-year-old provision of the state Constitution insofar as it would require segregation in public schools.

It also voided a 50-year-old statute prohibiting mingling of Negro and white students in a school.

The decision rejected an appeal by the Texas Citizens Council from a ruling by District Judge Charles Sullivan in a test case originating in Big Spring. Judge Sullivan had turned down the council's request for an injunction to block use of state money in schools attended by Negro and white students.

Atty. Gen. John Ben Sheppard who had argued state funds could not be used for integrated schools, said yesterday's decision "settles the law in Texas on a statewide basis, but the time of integration will still be a district-by-district matter."

Gov. Shivers, vigorous critic of the U.S. Supreme Court desegregation decision, issued a statement emphasizing "neither the Texas nor the United States Supreme Court had said that schools must desegregate immediately."

He said a desegregation decision is still a matter of local discretion.

Corps Trip Weekend To Start Tomorrow After Classes End

News of the World

By The ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON—Rep. Chudoff (D-Pa.) yesterday accused Interior Department chiefs of 'brazen and barefaced repudiation' of the public power laws and demanded that they change their tactics or resign. Chudoff's blast was delivered after his House Government Operations subcommittee had smoked an opinion by Atty. Gen. Brownell which rules against an Interior Department plan to sell publicly produced power to a private firm.

UNITED NATIONS—Poland's Julius Katz-Suchy warned yesterday the budding spirit of international cooperation will be seriously hampered if Poland loses its bid for the U.N. Security Council. U.S. Chief Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. who is backing the Philippines against Poland for the seat held by Turkey, promptly countered that Poland is not fit for the Security Council. "Communist Poland is clearly not a nation which has contributed to international peace and security within the meaning of the Charter or which is in position to do so," Lodge said.

LONDON—Field Marshal Lord Montgomery urged yesterday that Western air forces be united in "one single mighty weapon of air power" commanded by an American. He said if war comes the West should set up a single political authority—with headquarters in North America—to direct global operations. The deputy supreme Allied commander in Europe made his statements in a lecture at Britain's Royal United Services Institution.

MOSCOW—Eight disappointed U. S. congressmen left yesterday after a three-day visit in which they saw the sights but were unable to get any business accomplished. The lawmakers intended discussing foreign trade and international air transport into the Soviet Union with top Soviet leaders.

TSCW Dance, TCU Game Are Features

More than 4,000 students will begin straying from the campus tomorrow, leaving a bare look in classrooms, for the first of two scheduled Corps Trips this year. The other Corps Trip is to Houston, Nov. 12. Saturday classes are cancelled for the annual trips.

Units will begin forming at 9 a.m. Saturday morning and will move out at 10 a.m. The order of march is the Band, Corps Staff, first regiment, second regiment, first wing and second wing.

Students will form by the Pittsburg Plate Glass Co., just south of the Texas and Pacific Railway terminal. Route of march will be up Main St. to Fifth where a left turn will be executed to Houston St.

where a right turn will be made and then a right turn on Weatherford St. where students will be dismissed. The march will include about 24 blocks of actual marching.

The parade will be graded with the reviewing stand located in front of the Texas Hotel. The band will be located on Eighth St., across from the hotel.

Uniform for the parade is class A summer with overseas caps. This same uniform will be worn to the football game but the winter uniform is optional for Saturday night festivities.

A&M cadets received much praise in the 1953 trip to Ft. Worth on conduct and appearance. Two prominent Ft. Worth civic leaders, L. R. (Dutch) Meyer, TCU athletic director and Walter Humphrey, editor of the Fort Worth Press, complimented the student body on conduct while in their city.

In a letter to W. L. Penberthy, then dean of men, Meyer said the conduct of students was "certainly enjoyed and appreciated by everyone."

Humphrey stated, in his daily column in the Press, that "it gave me a tremendous lift, reaffirming my pride and hope in American (especially Texas) youth."

The well-known editor ended with "you can't find a finer looking group of young men anywhere."

Starting this weekend off will be a dance at TSCW Friday night. All A&M students received a special invitation from a group of TSCW students who visited here Tuesday night.

The dance will start at 8 p.m. and end at midnight. A yell practice will be held sometime during the dance and as one of the TSCW girls here Tuesday said, "another will probably be held after we have to be in our rooms."

A record crowd of 36,881 will be in Amon Carter Stadium Saturday afternoon at 2 to watch the A&M-TCU grid contest. The game became a sell-out in Ft. Worth Tuesday when 3,000 tickets were sold. Sports writers have picked TCU to take the Aggies by eight points.

Charlene Seth, Aggie Sweetheart, will be presented at half-time. (See CORPS TRIP, Page 6)

LETTER TO EDITOR

Dear Editor:

On behalf of the TSCW delegation to Tuesday's yell practice, I want to say thanks a million to the Aggies for the wonderful reception we received.

All the girls had a great time and we are looking forward to seeing you at our Pre-Corps Trip Dance in the Union Building on Friday night.

Southern hospitality, particularly that exhibited by the Aggies Tuesday night, is a wonderful thing... we hope you enjoyed having us just half as much as we enjoyed visiting your campus.

Sincerely,
Madelyn (Cooky) Pulver
President, TSCW
Student Body

6,300 Tickets Sold For 'Trip'

A total of 6,300 tickets have been sold to A&M students for the Corps trip game this weekend, said Pat Dial, Athletic Department business manager.

This includes 2,000 date tickets, 300 student tickets stamped "date" and 4,000 student tickets.

"After this we will be unable to sell more than 2,000 date tickets," Dial said. "For home games we have an allotted amount of space and can't go beyond that."

Tickets for the Baylor game will go on sale Monday through Friday or until they are sold out.

Community Chest

Drive To Start Oct. 31

The annual A&M College-College Station Community Chest-Red Cross got underway last night, when the planning board met in the library to finish arrangements for the 1955-56 drive.

The drive will begin Oct. 31, and continue until Nov. 12, according to Robert A. Houze, college librarian and chairman of this year's drive.

Budget hearings will be held Oct. 20, at 7 p.m. in the Memorial Student Center. All agencies who participated in the drive last year will be notified of the meeting.

Methods of collections to be used will be the same as in previous years. Forms will be supplied to all of the departments on the campus so that college employees will be able to contribute. College Station business firms and firms doing business in College Station will also be canvassed. Residents of College Station who are stationed at Bryan Field and others not covered in this list will be contacted individually.

Agencies which took part last year were American Red Cross, American Cancer Society, Brazos County Tuberculosis Association, Brazos County Charity Hospital

Weather Today
