

BA, Geology Wives Win Bowling Games

The Business Administration Wives and the Geology Wives won the first games in the Council Bowling League which began Tuesday night at the Memorial Student Center.

The B. A. Wives defeated the Mechanical Engineering Wives while the Geology Wives scored over the Bridge Club.

Aggie Players Cast Caine Mutiny Play

Casting has been completed for the next production of the Aggie Players, "The Caine Mutiny Court Martial."

The play is an adaptation of "The Caine Mutiny", the Pulitzer Prize winning novel written by Herman Wouk. Under the direction of C. K. Esten, the play will be presented in the Student Center Ballroom Nov. 14-16.

Charles Ware and Don Powell play the parts of the two attorneys, Greenwald and Challice. Bill Swann has been cast as Maryk and Toby Hughes as President of the Court. The role of Captain Queeg will be played by Harry Gooding. Others in the cast are Hugh Langtree, Connie Eckard, Don Fisher, James Liessner, Lester Cochran, Ted Castle, Roger Alexander, Roy Cline, Roger Clark and Ward Boyce.

Backstage work is headed by Pete Justice as stage manager. Crew heads are Ernest Kennedy, Joe Dannenbaum, Gene Logan and Sharon Bradford. Bill Campbell is business manager.

B. A. and Geology tied for high series.

Individual high series went to Erma Ingram of the B. A. Wives and Evelyn Brady of the M. E. Wives.

Any club that wants to enter the series can do so by contacting Joy Jones, tournament secretary. The only requirement is that each club have at least five members on the team.

The Aggie Wives Council, newly formed organization of all the wives clubs combined, is sponsor of the tournament.

Bowling will cost $1 a night which includes regulation shoes and the alley.

Student Loan Places Limit On All Loans

The Student Loan Office has placed a limit of $20 on all student loans due to the limit of money available.

"Too many students are drawing $50 at a time and in a little while, all of our money is gone," said Col. E. F. Sauer, loan director.

Col. Sauer said the money was there for students to use for Corps trips or other weekend occasions when he needed some extra cash to make ends meet—not for making a car payment or paying the monthly rent.

ASPARAGUS CASSEROLE

1 large can green asparagus
1 can mushrooms
1 can water chestnuts (chopped)
1 T. vinegar
1 T. chopped onion
1 cup white sauce
1 pkg. Old English or sharp cheddar cheese
To the white sauce, add grated cheese reserving enough to top the dish. Grease the casserole with butter or margarine and place in layers of asparagus, mushrooms, and chestnuts until all are used. Add the sauce and top with the remaining cheese. Bake 15 to 20 minutes in moderate oven.

MOLDED CUCUMBER JELLO

I usually double this recipe since it keeps very well when covered and would be made up for several days.
1 pkg. lime jello
1 cup hot water
2 T. vinegar
1 T. chopped onion
1/2 t. salt
1/2 cup mayonnaise
3 large chopped cucumbers
pimentos
Dissolve jello in hot water and add vinegar, onions and salt. Allow to thicken, and then beat until frothy. Add mayonnaise and fold in cucumbers then put in refrigerator to set. Decorate with pimentos for color.

FRESH PEACH PIE

This peach pie is slightly different as I add tapioca to give it body as well as added flavor.
3 T quick cooking Tapioca
1/2 cup of water. (If peaches are very juicy, no water is used)
1/2 cup brown sugar
1/2 t. salt
4 cups sliced fresh peaches
1 to 2 T. lemon juice
butter (to suit taste)
Combine the ingredients and put in pastry shell, add latticed top. Bake until crusts are brown.
